Ukrainian Church Plans 40th Anniversary Mass

Fortieth anniversary of St. Joseph's Ukrainian Catholic Church, Hudson Avenue, Rochester, will be observed with colorful ceremonies Sunday, Nov. 27, highlighted by a High Mass in the Byzantine Slavonic rite celebrated by the Most Rev. Constantine Bohachevsky, D.D., Bishop of the U. S. Catholic Ukrainian Diocese.

Ukrainians will also celebrate the Silver Jubilee of Bishop Bohachevsky's consecration which the 65-year-old prelate observed this year in June.

ASSISTING THE Bishop at Mass will be the Rev. John Zuk and the Rev. Alexander Speranks, both of Buffalo. Arrangements are being made under direction of the Rev. Stephen Holowid, pastor of St. Joseph's, and the Rev. Dr. Aldo Rudnik, assistant.

Bishop Bohachevsky will preach the anniversary sermon. At 5 o'clock a banquet will be served in the church hall for the parishioners.

The Ukrainian parish had its beginnings in 1903, when a group of Western Ukrainians settled in Rochester. Their spiritual needs were served by missionary priests from Troy, Elmira, Buffalo and Auburn.

Services were held in a rented hall on Clinton Avenue at Hand Street.

When parish membership grew to 100, the first St. Joseph's Church building project was launched. The structure erected on Remington Street was consecrated in 1910.

Four years later expansion necessitated the purchase of a larger building, the present St. Joseph's Church, located at 305 Hudson Avenue.

THE PARISH now counts over 300 families, Ukrainians from all over the city, operates its own parochial school of 8 grades, and has 21 active fraternal organizations. Since 1936, when the parish hall and day school were first opened, the Ukrainian school has grown to an enrollment of 190 children brought to the Hudson Avenue school in their own bus.
