IFCA Names Two $9,052 Total Reported In Monastery Campaign

The Elmira committee for Enrollment in the Association of the Perpetual Rosary met again last Sunday at the Mark Twain Hotel to report progress achieved during the previous week.

Harry J. Lagongre, local chairman announced that the sum of $9,052.00 had been subscribed and the meeting produced an additional $1012.50 making a grand total of $9,864.50 towards the goal of $20,000.00 that has been set.

THE FUNDS are urgently needed to erect an addition to the present Monastery conducted by the Dominican Sisters. Applicants are now awaiting admission to the Order and cannot be accepted because of lack of room.

The Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, Chaplain at the Monastery urged the workers to continue their splendid efforts in the hopes that the sum required would be raised before the end of the year.

Committees have been established in several parishes throughout the Diocese and any information about the campaign may be had by writing to the Dominican Monastery, Rosary Hill, Elmira, N. Y.

Seneca Falls K. C. Set First Degree

Seneca Falls - Seneca Falls Council, Knights of Columbus, will exemplify a first degree next Tuesday evening, Nov. 22 in the K. of C. Home, in conjunction with their regular business meeting. Henry Simola, Grand Knight, will preside.

Plans have been announced for a Thanksgiving Fair which will be held in the Home Saturday evening of this week. Refreshments will be served.

St. Andrew's CWV Arrange To Donate Blood On Monday

A meaningful observance of the Thanksgiving period has been planned by St. Andrew's Memorial Post No. 1201, Catholic War Veterans.

Members of the post will give blood to the mobile unit of Rochester Regional Red Cross Blood Program Monday, November 21, at St. Andrew's School. The donations will be taken between 2 and 6:30 p.m.

ARMAND LAMAY, post commander, said the post hopes to donate over 100 pints of blood to increase blood supplies over the dangerous Thanksgiving weekend. "The men at the post," he said, "feel that giving blood to help their neighbors is a tangible and meaningful way of observing Thanksgiving. We are glad to take part in so valuable a community understanding as the blood program."

Assisting Lamay with preparations are Milton Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schmucker, Ray Driscoll, Mrs. Florence Bowman,
