After a brief welcoming address and a tribute to Book Week, Mrs. Griffin presented Mrs. Gollber who introduced Miss Nancy Dowling, soprano, and Mrs. John McGannon, accompanist.

NOVELS ARE written, the writer said, for many reasons, for entertainment, escape, mental stimulation, to widen the readers' experiences, but primarily to suggest to the reader basic truths of universal importance.

Another feature of the afternoon was the excellent book display which was arranged by Miss Madeline Stenger through the cooperation of Mr. and Mrs. Castle C. Cummings.

President Names Priest To ILO

Olympia, Wash. (NC) The Rev. Jerome L. Toner, O.S.B., dean of social sciences at St. Martin's College here and recognized authority on the closed shop in trade unionism, has been appointed by President Harry S. Truman as delegate to the metal trade sessions of the International Labor Organization in Geneva, Switzerland. It has been announced.

Said to be the first Catholic priest named by a U. S. President as delegate in the ILO history, Father Toner has left for Europe and will be gone for two months. Fifty-six nations will send delegates to the Geneva sessions.

Colorado Suit Accuses Nuns

Sterling, Colo. (RNS) — A civil suit filed in Logan County District Court here charged that public tax funds are being used to maintain a school in which Roman Catholic nuns are employed as teachers.

An immediate denial of the allegations was made by Joseph A. Craven, attorney for the Denver Archdiocese, who said the charge that the nuns were teaching religion during school hours was false and illegal.

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BLISH
For the past week the zero hour has been upon us. We have sorrowfully found ourselves plunged into the thick of exam battles and for more than one last Monday and Tuesday became Blue Monday and Blue Tuesday.

Memories of the joyous outpouring of Armistice Day's game carried our seniors through the blitz of quarterlies unimpaird with any signs of battle or mental fatigue. Hathorn Court was the scene of the football team in which the Seniors completely routed the Sophs.

Corning Weddings

Corning Miss Anne Marie Fehn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Fehn 184 E. Third St. and William D. Amundson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Amundson of Prairie Farm Wisconsin, were united in marriage Saturday, Nov. 12 in St. Patrick's Church.

The bride's sister, Miss Genevieve Fehn, was maid of honor and Miss Lucille O'Neill was bridesmaid. James Rotsell acted as best man and ushers were Harold Abel of Montour Falls and Ray Amundson of Prairie Farm Wisconsin.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Later the couple left for New York City. Upon their return they will live at 184 E. Third St.

Tokyo Child Wins Auto At Bazaar

Tokyo (NC)—About 10,000 persons attended an international bazaar held here to raise funds for a new building for Sacred Heart University. It was sponsored by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida and foreign missions and attracted persons of many nationalities. Three imperial princes also attended.

The climax of the day came in a drawing for an American automobile. The draw was made by the Japanese world swimming champion Hiroshi Furushashi. The winner of the auto was little seven-year-old Teruko Okagawa, a second grade pupil of Sacred Heart Girl's School, who had signed her ticket merely with her name and phone number. When the champion drew her ticket suspense was breathless until tiny Teruko stepped forward with the stub of her ticket amid a storm of applause.

General Chairman for the happy affair was Ralph Reed who was assisted by the following: Jack Cusick, A. J. Von Hendy, Mary Schiav, John Geary, Betty Lou Coakle and Don Keating.

Highlights of the dance were the exhibition pekas staged by Ray Winietski and Margie Frank, relatives of Arthur Murray's. Chaperones for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Von Hendy and Mr. and Mrs. John Cusick and Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Connor and Mrs. Leo M. Shak.
