Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BLISH For the past week the zero hour has been upon us. We have sorrowfully found ourselves plunged into the thick of exam battles and for more than one last Monday and Tuesday became Blue Monday and Blue Tuesday...

Boy Are They Red? Memories of the joyous out come of Armistice Day's game carried our seniors through the blitz of quarterlies unimpaird with any signs of battle or mental fatigue.

Tokyo Child Wins Auto At Bazaar

Tokyo (NC)—About 10,000 persons attended an international bazaar held here to raise funds for a new building for Sacred Heart University. It was sponsored by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida and foreign missions and attracted persons of many nationalities.

The climax of the day came in a drawing for an American automobile. The draw was made by the Japanese world swimming champion Hiroshi Furushashi. The winner of the auto was little seven-year-old Teruko Okagawa, a second grade pupil of Sacred Heart Girl's School, who had signed her ticket merely with her name and phone number.

Swing and Sway

Dressed in the patriotic colors of red, white and blue the assembly hall became the scene of an Armistice Night dance last Thursday eve. Music from the juke-box furnished an evening of fun to all those who turned out for the doings.
