Years of spiritual progress in pew and classroom were hailed by His Excellency Bishop Kearney as he officiated Sunday morning in a double ceremony at St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece.

St. James Parish Plans First Mass Sunday, Dec. 18th

Sunday Mass may be celebrated for the first time in the new St. James Church, Brockley Road, Irondequoit, on Sunday, Dec. 18, according to the Rev. Francis M. Feeney pastor.

With construction of the church and school buildings proceeding as scheduled, the basement of the church will be ready for services on that date. Father Feeney announced.

A MEETING of altar boys is scheduled at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, Nov. 26, at the rectory, 109 Brockley Rd. Volunteers from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be welcomed. The general committee of parish workers will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, in the rectory. Father Feeney said.

During alterations of the rectory Father Feeney is residing at 301 Garson Ave. and may be reached there through CULver 2030-M. He is at the rectory each evening, however, from 7 to 9 p. m., and may be reached there through CULver 3918.

Pastor Quoted On School Issue

A Rochester Diocese pastor was quoted this week in a new book of compiled public statements on leading issues of the day.

"WE, THE PEOPLE," self styled "Yearbook of Public Opinion," (Fisher Co., New York 19, N.Y., $3.75) quotes the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Genesee, on the subject of religious education as follows:

"Catholics build and maintain their own schools because they believe that God has a place in education. Protestants build and maintain schools for the same reason, although in much smaller numbers. In January, 1943, the New York TIMES reported as a result of a survey that two-thirds of the children in the New York public schools has never heard of the Ten Commandments and one-fourth of the youths of the nation had never been inside a church.

"THE TIME has come when the right of every child to a religious education must be recognized. The child attending the public schools must not be penalized by not receiving a religious education because he attends the public school, and the child attending the religious school must not be penalized because his parents judge that a religious education is of greater importance for him than a free school building, free books and rides on a school bus."

Father Hogan has written special articles for the Courier-Journal, the Brooklyn Tablet, and the Catholic Mind. In 1947-48 he wrote a weekly column for Our Sunday Visitor.

Irish Amnesty
Dublin (RNS)—To indicate its complete harmony with the spirit of the Holy Year of 1950, the Irish Government has announced that persons in jail on Dec. 24 will have their sentences cut by one to six months.

ON NATIONAL K. E. BOARD

Ukrainian Parish Anniversary Set

Completed for consecration by the Most Rev. Peter Orsyk, Ukrainian Catholic Bishop from Philadelphia, in May, 1910. The ikonosnata of St. Joseph's was consecrated a month earlier by Bishop Orsyk in the presence of the late Bishop Thomas F. Hickey of Rochester.

The next significant year of parish history was 1914 when the Rev. Vassil Mrosovsky, pastor from 1912 to 1915 purchased a church building at 95 Hudson Avenue from a Protestant group called the Evangelical Society for $26,000.

After long legal tangles the new parish then set up a corporation composed of the Bishop of Rochester and his Vicar General plus the parish priest and two lay trustees elected by the parishioners.

IN SUCCEEDING years the following were pastors of the growing parish: Rev. Michael Lysiak '15-'17, Rev. Volodymer Spoltakovich '17-'19, Rev. Constantine Kurilla '19-'21, Rev. Stephen Vaschyshyn, '21-'23.

Able and energetic Rev. Basil Tutula became pastor in Dec. 1923 and served 26 years until his retirement in 1949 and his succession by the present pastor the Rev. Stephen Hrovos.

Under Father Tutula the church was cleared of all debts, a parish hall was built and a small day school was organized under direction of the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate.

THE PARISH now counts over 300 families, Ukrainians from all over the city operate its own

Claver Knights To Open Club

Council 106 Knights of Peter Claver have located the K.P.C. Social Club and acquired a hall and meeting rooms for dinners, dances and parties, according to Orlando J. Greene, Grand Knight.

The new club facilities will be available after Jan. 1. Mr. Greene announced and social functions will be open to members and their friends.

Entertainment plans in the new club provide for dancing instruction by resident teachers, floor shows, refreshments, card parties and bazaars.

The Knights invite membership and inquiry for use of the new facilities. Address: K.P.C. Social Club, P.O. Box 15, Rochester, N. Y.

Aquinas Alumni Dance Set Dec. 26

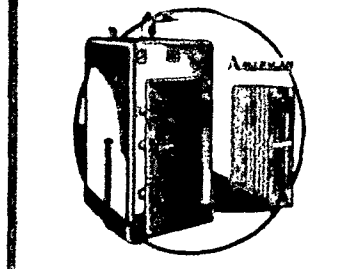

An informal get-together and dance for Aquinas Alumni on Monday Dec. 26 will be planned for the Thanksgiving Holidays.

The affair will be held at The Barn, 9 to 1.

Slate Review of Thomas Merton Book

The Waters of Silence by Thomas Merton, now translated by Father Louis, will be reviewed by James F. Flynn at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 400 South Ave. It is another wide read book by the famed author of Seven Storey Mountain.
