National Officer Heard At Webster CBA Anniversary

Valuable features of insurance services offered by the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association were outlined by Mrs. Augusta Lauber of Ohio, supreme L.C.B.A. officer and principal speaker at a dinner marking the 40th anniversary of Branch 1114, Webster, Nov. 18 in Holy Trinity Hall, Webster.

Approximately 100 L.C.B.A. members, including delegates from Rochester and East Rochester, attended and joined in honoring Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett, first president of Branch 1114 who organized it 40 years ago with 20 charter members.

Members of the St. Monica Sodality, headed by Miss James Stein and Mrs. Eugene Schuff served the dinner. Entertainment included Mrs. Lauber's address, a musical program, a reading of a letter from the Holy See and a prayer by Rev. Msgr. Fick.

War Memorial Plans Told By Fr. Nacca At Dinner

Auburn — One of the largest attended dinners of the year in Auburn brought 513 persons together Sunday night, in the Osborne Hotel to honor the Rev. John Nacca, new pastor of St. Francis of Assisi church.

The testimonial affair was sponsored by three foremost organizations of the parish, Holy Name and Sacred Heart societies and Young Ladies Sodality.

The main banquet room couldn't accommodate all the guests. The overflow was served in the foyer.

Father Nacca, appointed by the Most Rev. James E. Keane, Bishop of Rochester diocese, to fill a vacancy left by the death of the former pastor the Rt. Rev. Adolph L. Gabiani, expressed his appreciation for support given him.

TOUCHING BRIEFLY up the renovating of the church, he revealed plans for the first time publicly for erecting a suitable memorial at the church property to men of the parish who gave their lives in world wars I and II.

Ground already has been broken back of a flagpole for placing of the memorial. He expressed thanks for assistance in the project.

Business Corporation Counsel Anthony J. Contiguglia was toastmaster. Among the speakers were Larry Argiro who is instructor in West High School, the Rev. Joseph Beattini, assistant pastor of St. Francis church, the Rev. Anthony F. Callmer, Rochester, and Mrs. Dominic Ciampaglia who spoke for sponsoring organizations. She was general chairman of arrangements.

Father Callmer, assistant pastor at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Rochester, spoke largely along a spiritual line. His talk was inspiring.

The Rev. Bernard Daly of Carmelite Father was invited for the invocation. Father Beattini gave the benediction.

Miss Patsy Tunica and Miss Marjorie (Lambert) sang selections and the Contiguglia twins, John and Richard played a piano duet. Dancing with music provided by Joe Lamardo, and his orchestra followed.

Mrs. Flannery Heads St. Theodore Group — Mrs. Ethel Flannery was named president of St. Theodore's Rosary and Altar Society at the regular October meeting. Mrs. Gladys Zimmerman is secretary and Mrs. Ann Tubey is general committee chairman.

Next meeting will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 30 at 8 in the church followed by a short business meeting with entertainment and lunch in the hall.

Mrs. Herbert Rermming is chairman of the lunch and entertainment assisted by Mesdames J. Flannery, Charles Eberhard, R. Schutt, A. Lercher, C. Donbertin, E. McCarthy, W. Drumm, R. Geraghty, E. Tambie, J. Reber, B. Rausch, E. Maler, E. Spang, Miss Helen Oister, Miss Ellen Lercher.
