Bishop Says Mass For Priest Who Aided Vocation

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop Kearney for the Rev. James D. Lennon who as a young priest inspired the future Bishop of Rochester in his vocation to the Holy Priesthood.

In the Sisters of Christian Doctrine Chapel, Marydell, Nyack on Nov. 22.

Father Lennon, 85, and chaplain for the Sisters, was assistant priest in St. Agnes Church, New York, when Bishop Kearney was an altar boy. At a Mass in those days celebrated by Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid of Rochester, Bishop Kearney was a worthy helper and Father Lennon in charge of the ceremony.

REPRESENTING HIS Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York at the funeral was the Most Rev. Joseph P. Donohue, V.C., Auxiliary Bishop of New York. Sermon was preached by the Rev. Daniel J. O'Keefe, superior of the New York Apostolate Mission Band.

Bishop Kearney was assisted by the Rt. Rev. Magr. Joseph M. Egan, Bronx, an assistant priest; the Rev. John J. Stewart, deacon and the Rev. Leo D. Ross, O.P., subdeacon.

Father Lennon was a brother of the Rt. Rev. Magr. Patrick J. Lennon, Tuxedo, and the late Rev. Michael D. Lennon. Other survivors are three brothers, Dr. John, Joseph M. and Francis Lennon and three sisters, Mrs. Hugh McGrath, Anna Maria and Isabelle Lennon.

Father Lennon was born Sept. 6, 1864 and was ordained on May 31, 1890.

'CONGRATULATIONS'

His Excellency Bishop Constantine Bohachevsky, Apostolic Exarch of the Ukrainian Catholic Diocese of America congratulates the parish of St. Joseph's, Rochester on completing 40 years of service to God. Receiving the congratulations is the Rev. Stephen Holowid, pastor. Bishop Bohachevsky celebrated the anniversary mass in the Byzantine-Slavonic Rite, Sunday at St. Joseph's.

Ukrainian Bishop Lauds Parish 40-Year Progress

Rochester's Ukrainian Catholics received encouraging praise for their parochial achievements and loyalty to St. Joseph's Church from the Most Rev. Constantine Bohachevsky, Bishop of the U.S. Catholic Ukrainian Diocese. At the parish's 40th anniversary Mass celebrated last Sunday in the Hudson Avenue church.

Bishop Bohachevsky was the celebrant of the Jubilee High Mass in the Byzantine-Slavonic rite and preached the sermon lauding the parish for a "unity of faith and of national pride which has made St. Joseph's prosper for 40 years."

Pointing particularly to the new parish school facilities where 100 children are enrolled, the Bishop described the present educational progress as "the shining light of parish work through the years."

IN THE DIRECT appeal to parents and young people of the parish Bishop Bohachevsky pleaded for a strong interest in vocations to the Ukrainian priesthood and sisterhood. The parish has four young men presently studying at St. Basil's Seminary in Stamford, Conn. Assisting the Bishop at the High Mass were the Rev. John Zuk and Rev. Alexander Steranka, both of Buffalo. Arrangements were directed by the Rev. Stephen Holowid, pastor of St. Joseph's and his assistant Rev. Dr. Aldo Rudnitsky.

The Rev. Stephen A. Chomko, assistant pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul's Ukrainian Church of Auburn, preached the English sermon at the Mass expressing the congregation's gratitude to the Bishop for his leadership and urging the parish to appreciate the importance of religion in everyday life.

A parish banquet was held in the church hall later in the afternoon. School children staged national dances in the entertainment program and the Bozky National choir sang. Dinner arrangements were handled by members of St. Anne's Sodality.

The Ukrainian parish began to form in 1903 when the first group of immigrants from Western Ukraine settled in Rochester. After several years of mission work by priests from Auburn, Buffalo and Troy, the first St. Joseph's church was built in 1909. Four years later parish expansion required purchase of a larger building, the present church at 305 Hudson Avenue. The parish today numbers more than 400 families scattered throughout the city.

Final Tribute Paid Housekeeper At St. Stanislaus

Priests and people of St. Stanislaus Parish, Rochester, were grief-stricken at the sudden death Monday, Nov. 21, 1949, of the parish housekeeper for the past sixteen years, the late Frances Olaszewski.

Mrs. Julia Waite her only living sister and her brothers, John of Watkins Glen and Frank of Hornell and Anthony of New Orleans, La., were shocked on receiving news of the sudden death of their sister.

Funeral rites for "this faithful servant" of the priests for so many years were held Wednesday, Nov. 23, with a Solemn Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock in St. Stanislaus Church.

Officers of the Mass were the Rt. Rev. Magr. Joseph Balcerak, celebrant, Rev. Michael Sadowski of St. John Kanty Prep in Erie, deacon, Rev. Ladislaus Szczepanski of St. Casimir in Elmira, subdeacon, Rev. John Cleasinski, first master, Rev. Henry Adamski, second master, Rev. Mathew Siudara, thurifer.

Bearers were Sigismund Balcerak, Walter Wolczak, Henry Zurowki, Edward Ostrowski, Leonard Tomczak, and Marion Figler.

The school children's choir sang the Mass and all the school children were present in church. Besides Mrs. Waite and her brothers John and Frank Mathew Orzenchowski a devoted nephew was also present.

The late Frances Olaszewski was laid to rest in St. Peter & Paul cemetery in Elmira, N. Y. beside her parents.

"May the good Lord grant her soul everlasting joy for her good work," was expressed by the priests of St. Stanislaus.
