Parochial School Basketball League To Be Sponsored By Holy Name Men

Formation of a Rochester Parochial School Basketball League under the sponsorship of the Rochester Deaneys Holy Name Union will take place at Tuesday night, Dec. 13, in Columbus Civic Centre.

Expected to comprise at least 12 teams, the league will be set up and operated similarly to the Parochial School Softball League also sponsored by the Deaneys Holy Name Union.

Opening games will be scheduled beginning late in January. Some courts will be made available to schools which do not have courts of their own.

PRESENT LEAGUE plans call for scheduling of two games weekly with a playoff tournament deciding the league champion. Students of St. Andrew's Seminary will serve as referees.

Representing the Holy Name Deaneys in operation of the league will be John T. Nothnagle, a vice-president of the Diocesan Holy Name Union, and Arthur P. Farren, Diocesan Union executive secretary. The Rev. Donald E. Mulcahy, director of the Social Action Department (Catholic Charities), will cooperate in conduct of the league.
