Dean Officiates In Cornerstone Rite

In vestments, Monsignor John A. Conway, pastor of Holy Family Church, Auburn and Dean of the Auburn Deanery of which Trumansburg is part, conducts the cornerstone laying for St. James Church, Trumansburg rising again after fire had about totally destroyed it. Participating (from left) Rev. William Byrne, Ithaca; Rev. Francis Waterstraat, Moravia and Owasco; Rev. James F. Baker, Ithaca; Monsignor Conway; Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, pastor of Trumansburg and Interim and general contractor in rebuilding St. James Church and Rev. Alfred J. Horr of Auburn. Ceremony took place yesterday, Immaculate Conception Feast.

Cornerstone Laid In Church Replacing Edifice Ruined By Trumansburg Fire

Trumansburg. St. Rev. Magr John A. Conway, Dean of the Auburn Deanery, acting as the delegate of His Excellency Bishop Kearney, blessed the cornerstone of the new St. James Church here on December 8 and plans were announced for formal dedication of the finished church on February 1, 1950.
This is the third time that a corner stone has been placed in the structure which will be the "New St. James." The first church, used 22 years ago, was moved and enlarged when the parish outgrew it. The second church was almost totally destroyed by fire 11 months ago.
LOCAL HISTORY reveals that the Most Rev. John Timon, Bishop of Buffalo, in which diocese Trumansburg was then located, consecrated the first church of the newly founded parish on April 18, 1857. The building had been purchased from the local Methodist Episcopal Society which had built the church in 1833 and had used it 25 years.
By 1858 this building, originally on a Main Street location, became too small for the growing Catholic congregation. Plans were made to move it to a position beside the rectory on Whit Street and enlarge it for current needs.
WHEN THIS was accomplished the Most Rev. Bernard J.
McQuaid, first Bishop of Rochester, consecrated the enlarged and newly decorated church on Nov.
8, 1896. He was assisted by the Rev. R. T. O'Connell of Buffalo.
