Funeral Services Conducted For Mrs. Emma Sercu

Funeral Mass of Requiem was celebrated Saturday morning Dec. 10, at St. Agnes Church for Mrs. Emma Sercu, widow of the late Engelbert Sercu, 115 Fawcett Street.

The Rev. Frank W. Mason, the Rev. George J. Schmitt assisted at the Mass assisted by Deacon and Rev. Roy F. Hagarty as Sub-Deacon.

Present in the Sanctuary were the Reverend Fathers Matthew J. Tobin, C.S.B., Joseph Daley, C.S.B., Raymond Schmitt, C.S.B., Mark Cleary, C.S.B., John Crowell, C.S.B., and George Walter, C.S.B.; Rev. Eugene N. Golding and Rev. John J. Burke.

Mrs. Sercu was the mother of the late Raymond E. Sercu, C.S.B., a Redemptorist Missionary who was drowned in 1929 in Puerto Rico while trying to save some children. She was great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Henke, who settled in Rochester in 1862.

Bearers were Bert Dohertin, Frank Temmetman, Charles Gores, Francis Gores, Louis Melsenzahl and Walter Henke. She is survived by four daughters, the Misses Rosella M. Ethel E. and Eleanor L. Sercu and Mrs. Edward J. Rehholz; two sons, Engelbert E. and Thomas J. Sercu; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Gores and Mrs. William J. Melsenzahl; two brothers, Edward and E. Fred Henke. Deceased was a member of the Rosary Society.

Bisping at the grave was given by Father Schmitt, assistant Hagarty. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

AS MASS ENDS CENTENARY

His Excellency Bishop Kearney with Monsignor Joseph B. Cameron, (left) pastor, at the conclusion of Solemn Pontifical Mass ending a week-long celebration of Rochester's Immaculate Conception Church 100th Anniversary. Monsignor Cameron has been pastor 27 years.

Parish Widely Acclaimed On Observing Centenary

People of all denominations from every part of Rochester joined the parishioners of Immaculate Conception Parish in celebrating its 100th anniversary in conjunction with the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph B. Cameron, now in his 28th year as pastor of Immaculate, celebrated a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving Thursday morning, following the opening of the centennial Dec. 4 with a triduum. Thursday evening he was host to His Excellency Bishop Kearney and 750 clergy and lay persons at the centennial banquet.

BISHOP KEARNEY congratulated century-old Immaculate Conception Parish on the contribution it has made to the spiritual and material welfare of the community.

"You have encouraged people as worthy representatives of Immaculate, to become leaders in the community and to make a real contribution to the great city of Rochester," the Bishop said. "It is a tribute to Father Cameron and it explains the magnificent hold Immaculate has on its people."

Monsignor Cameron told Bishop Kearney: "Although we are 100 years old, we still are a vigorous parish and are ready to do the work that lies ahead."

The prelate pointed out that the old Third Ward landmark, located at Plymouth Circle, has long been known as "our church," and quoted letters, telegrams and cables for many places, which used the phrase.

FRIDAY MORNING a Solemn High Mass was offered for living members of the parish by the Rev. Roy E. Hagarty and in the evening the school children presented a Cantata in the auditorium, depicting four of the apparitions of the Blessed Mother during the last 100 years. Sister M. Florian directed the children.

A Solemn Requiem Mass for deceased members of the parish was sung by the Rev. Charles J. McCarthy Saturday morning.

Sunday morning, the Bishop pontificated at High Mass at 11 o'clock and preached the sermon. He described the "spirit of hospitality" which exists between the priests and the people of Immaculate Conception. "In that relation between the sanctuary and the pews," said the Bishop, "is the spirit, or soul of the Parish. It is the story of hospi-

Mission Society Slates Yule Party

Date of the annual Christmas party of the Mission Society of St. Salome's Church has been changed to Wednesday, Dec. 21 at 6:30 p.m. in the school hall, Colver Road.

An exchange gift is requested from all attending and bearing the name of the donor.

The committee is composed of Misses Bernice Hees, Bernice Desmond, Ralph Smith, Louis Hamik and Oliver Ashcraft.

Frank Otto U. S. Food Villa Platte, La. (N.C.) - The Rev. Irvin A. DeBlanc, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church, has been appointed to the state advisory committee of the Federal Housing Administration.

Nativity Play Slated Tuesday At Mercy High

Our Lady of Mercy High School students will present a Christmas play entitled, "This I Learned from Mary" Tuesday night, Dec. 20 in the Blossom Road Auditorium. Eleanor Matt has earned the role of Our Lady, and Robert Kolb of Aquinas Institute that of Joseph.

Written by alumna Frances Grant, the play details events prior to the Saviour's birth. Shirley Schenkel and Shirley Fisher are cast as the two daughters of the Bethlehem innkeeper Dolores Weisenroth, as their mother, and Bill Quinlan as the innkeeper himself among the principals.

Charles Swabach, Dick Denzel, John Travis and Robert O'Halloran will be seen as the shepherds. Temple Virginia will play the part in the persons of Barbara Maloney, Shirley Lorenz, Mary Kay O'Donnell, Barbara Bedard and Elsie Palma.

The Nativity scene, climax of the drama, will find the Choral classes in a pilgrimage, bearing lighted candles to the stable. These girls will render traditional Christmas hymns.

Behind the scenes are Joan McCormack and Peter Helrich, stage managers. Phyllis Bock and Jean Stitt will supervise wardrobe, and Ann Gaver has been placed in charge of make-up. Parents and friends of Mercians are invited to attend.

Call Heard For More Volunteers
