World Famous Church Featured
'The World's Most Famous Church' is featured with a striking color photograph and an informative article by Ernest O. Hauser in the December 24th issue of 'The Saturday Evening Post' out this week.

Covering more than half a page is the photograph of the approach and facade of St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City which will be the center of interest for Holy Year Pilgrims in 1950.

The Post states that 'four centuries ago a genius named Michelangelo designed St. Peter's basilica, flouted all the architectural rules, and yet conceived what many regard as the noblest monument ever built by man.'
