Sociology Club Presents Yule Program For Aged

Entertainment for the folks at St. Ann's Home was presented by the Sociology Club of Nazareth College at a Christmas party Tuesday evening for its December "project" of the month.

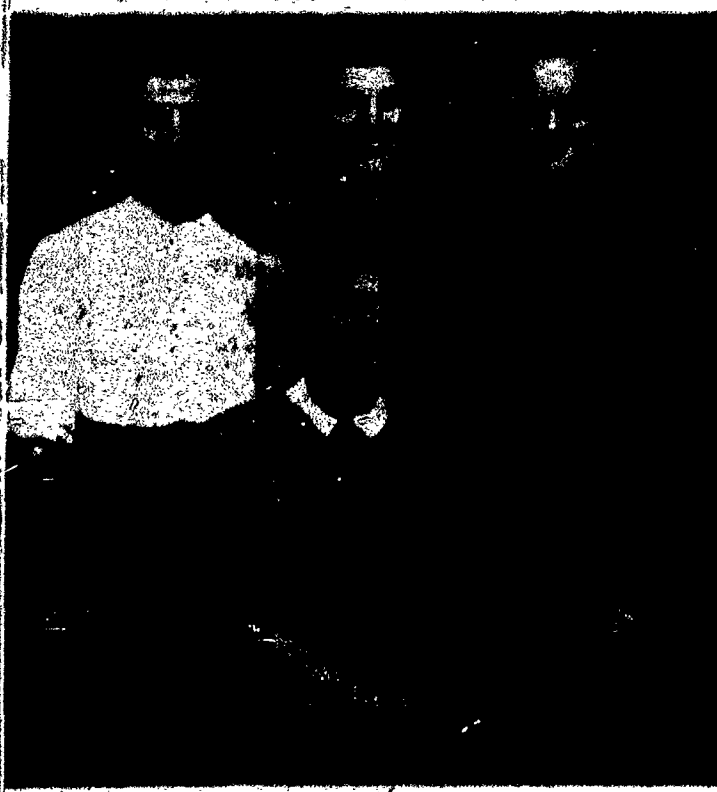

Musical songs and dances featured the program, with Janet Davis in charge. Numbers included a piano solo by Patricia O'Brien, songs by Lena Serpente and Mary Helen Brown, and dances—the Tarantella by Annmarie Dumbico and Violet Bell, accompanied by Ross Ann Chappone, and a "soft shoe" dance by Hilda Hasbrouck.

THE OLD PEOPLE and guests joined in singing Christmas songs with the students. Candy canes and favors were distributed to the 75 guests by Santa Claus, and refreshments were served. After the entertainment in the home auditorium, Christmas carols were sung in the corridors for infirm patients.

The articles will be used to fill Christmas baskets for shut-ins and the needy of the community, it was announced.

Ester McGuire presided at the society's business session at which the committee investigating purchases of rugs for the altar reported the price and the group voted to wait until January before deciding on purchase.
