25-Year Employees Awarded $1,000 Checks For Service

Presentation of $1,000 bonus checks to fifteen 25-year employees of the Will Corporation last week was termed by Harold J. Coleman, company president, as "a forward step in employee-employer relations." Coleman, widely known for his activity in Catholic circles, pointed out that the new bonus plan has been added to previous employee benefits such as a pension trust plan, paid in full by the company; group health and accident insurance, annual bonuses and progressive vacation schedules. Declaring the $1,000 checks will be given to all workers who complete 25 years with the firm, Coleman said: "I sincerely believe that persons who have completed that term of service are more valuable than ever before in their lives. They form the backbone of the organization." The Will Corporation, a laboratory suppliers' firm, last week marked its 30th anniversary.
