Family Here from Home in Germany

Having to live in one room as a large percentage of the German people are doing makes the Kellers appreciate having a home of their own. Mrs. Keller finds the stores with all you want a blessing that is unheard of in Germany today.

Cecilia, an eighteen year old has finished her high school studies and hopes to continue her education in this country. Stephen, 16, is a student at Aquinas while the younger children attend Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, where they started on coming to this country.
