

$15,210 Raised In Campaign for Dominican Nuns

A sum of $15,210 has been raised for the Dominican Sisters building fund in Elmira and plans are underway to intensify the campaign throughout the Diocese of Rochester to reach the $20,000 goal set.

This was announced this week by Chairman Harry J. Lagonegro of Elmira, who has been directing the campaign specializing in enrollments in the Association of the Perpetual Rosary.

Funds being raised are to be used for additions to the Dominican Nuns' Monastery in Elmira. Expansion is necessary according to the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, monastery chaplain.

In the campaign, Elmira leads with contributions totalling $7,922. From Trumansburg where St. James Church experienced a disastrous fire, the campaign workers have received the sum of $250.

Rochesterians have contributed $3,565 and from Buffalo has been received a total of $1,001.

Chairman Lagonegro is confident that the campaign will succeed.

Complete returns to date are: Elmira, $7,922; Elmira Heights, $382; Horseheads, $407; Corning, $461; Hornell, $20; Waverly, $214; Watkins, $78; Buffalo, $1,001; Auburn, $150; Trumansburg, $250; Rochester, $3,565; and Miscellaneous, $510 totalling $15,210.

Shufelt Couple Note Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Shufelt, 45 Randolph St., are receiving congratulations on their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Shufelt were married January 6th, 1915, in St. Michael's Church, Newark, N. Y., by the late Rev. J. J. Gibbons. Mrs. Shufelt, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Camp, and Mr. Shufelt the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Shufelt, were residents of Soda.

Mr. and Mrs. Shufelt have three sons, Harold E., Clifford C. and Howard C., the latter two having served in the past world war. Clifford served in the Air Corps and attained the rank of 1st Lieutenant. Howard served in the U. S. Navy as radar operator about a year and a half. Mr. and Mrs. Shufelt have six grandchildren.

Mr. Shufelt, a printer, worked in country weekly shops until 1924 when he accepted employment with the Daily Record Co. with whom he was associated for 19 years.

The Shufelts moved to Rochester in 1932 and located at 45 Randolph St.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Shufelt were entertained at a banquet given by their sons at Pine Tree Inn.

CHART COLLEGE REUNION

Accepting reservations for the Nazareth Alumnae Association reunion at Hotel Sheraton, Wednesday, Jan. 25, Mrs. William R. Sullivan, 151 Narrowside Ave. (Genesee 6841) and Mrs. John Richard Klee, 128 Jackson St. (Baker 1114). Guest speaker at first annual reunion banquet will be noted columnist Gretta Palmer.

Gretta Palmer Slated By Nazareth Alumnae

Forgotten memories will be recalled and old friendships renewed when members of the Nazareth College Alumnae Association gather Wednesday, Jan. 25 at Hotel Sheraton for their first annual reunion banquet. His Excellency Bishop Kearney will be guest of honor. Guest speaker will be Miss Gretta Palmer well-known as one of America's most prominent journalists and lecturers. Her syndicated column, "The Top of My Mind," is a weekly feature of the Courier Journal. She has chosen for her subject, "Mary's Century."

MISS PALMER is a member of Monsignor Fulton J. Shea's growing list of converts in semi-public life. She was received into the Church at Christmas time, 1946, and has written articles on the history of her conversion for "The Sign" magazine and "The Road to Damascus."

Born in St. Louis, Missouri, she was graduated from Vassar College into a staff writing job on the New Yorker. A few years later she turned to newspaper work, and became a daily columnist and Woman's Page Editor for New York World-Telegram.

MRS. PAUL NEUBERT is general chairman of the affair. Co-chairmen of arrangements and decorations are Mrs. Gordon Ide and Miss Hilda Connor assisted by Mrs. George Robertson, Miss Mary Leary and Mrs. Morgan Smith. Co-chairmen of reservations are Mrs. William R. Sullivan and Mrs. J. Richard Klee.

For reservations call, Mary Nolan Sullivan, Genesee 6841; Rosemary Welch Klee, Baker 1114; or Mildred Burke Neubert, Hillside 3015-J.
