Friar Explains Unity Octave To Canandaigua HNS

Canandaigua Pointing out that through their prayers Holy Name men may influence many to return to the Faith, the Rev. Alexander Beaton, S.A., guardian of St. John's Atonement Seminary, Montour Falls, outlined the aims of the Chair of Unity Octave at a breakfast here Sunday.

Approximately 140 members of St. Mary's Holy Name Society received corporate Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass and assembled for the breakfast at the K. of C. Hall.

Father Beaton explained the purposes of the Chair of Unity Octave, a period of prayer for conversion of all peoples to Christ which is observed from Jan. 18 to Jan. 25. The practice was inaugurated by the Friars of the Society of the Atonement.

HOLY NAME Society members directed Secretary Daniel T. Fragotone to write a letter of congratulations and best wishes to Patrick P. Daly, Jr., a member who left last week to become a brother in the Society of the Atonement, the same group to which Father Beaton belongs.

Vicepresident Frank H. Dhont presided in the absence of President T. Hamilton Kennedy. Thanks were expressed to the Knights of Columbus for use of the hall; to Leonard Monaghan and Al Burke Jr., in charge of the breakfast, and to the ticket committee.

During the Mass the St. Cecilia's Junior Choir sang hymns under the direction of Sister Jean Marie. Mrs. Francis J. Taylor was at the organ.
