200 Knights Honor Natalie

"One of the most sincere and enthusiastic members of the Knights of Columbus in New York State" was one of many tributes paid State Warden Rocco F. Natalie by K. of C. leaders from various sections of the state at a testimonial dinner in Columbus Civic Center, Tuesday.

The state warden, first Rochester Council member to hold a state office in 45 years, was presented a gold wrist watch by Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary and a set of cuff-links with the K. of C. emblem by George W. Varny, executive secretary, Syracuse Council, Knights of Columbus.

Greetings of state officers were voiced by John V. Naber of Buffalo, past state deputy, and Edward E. Burke of Dansville, former state warden. Anthony L. Haley of Lockport, present state committee chairman joined in the greetings.

Council Chaplain, the Rev. Matthew Tobin, C.S.R., spoke for the council and the Rev. Donald J. Mulcahy, director, Social Action Division, Rochester Catholic Charities for associates in Columbus Civic Center.

NATALIE'S RECORD as council warden, central Chapter warden, as chairman of the National bowling tournament, as committeeman and as a member of the NCCS Canteen opened in the K. of C. rooms during the war was cited by various speakers.

Joining in tributes were: District Deputies, John A. Galvin, Buffalo; Harry Esauola, Syracuse; and Harold P. Smith, Dansville; Grand Knights, John F. Clark Syracuse; Otto H. Koch, Buffalo and Ovid M. Puhoch, Medina.
