Two St. Andrew's Groups To Conduct Mardi Gras Tuesday

Costume hats will be provided at the Mardi Gras sponsored by St. Andrew's Catholic War Veterans and St. Andrew's Holy Name Society to be held Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Andrew's Hall, 923 Portland Avenue.

Each person will be introduced upon arrival. Costumes are optional, but prizes will be awarded for certain kinds of dress. Right names need not be given at the door, the committee announces. A king and queen will be crowned and enthroned. They will lead the "grand march."

Walter Berl is chairman of the affair. Music will be furnished by "Clint" Marcus and his orchestra. Harold Schmucker is ticket chairman, Urban Kress is decorations chairman, George Pappert, refreshments, and Milton Schmidt, buffet lunch chairman. Karl Strack will act as master of ceremonies.

Tickets, priced at one dollar, are on sale at the rectory, church office and from officers of both societies. Reservations must be made no later than Sunday, Feb. 13.

Happy Over Parish's Generosity

Rev. John Nacca, (left) pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Church, Auburn, smiles approvingly as Harold R. Surber, head teller and assistant treasurer of Auburn Trust Company, reaches for heavy money bag, containing last Sunday's collection of $70.07, the highest in the history of the parish. Father Nacca shown depositing the collection says his people are "most generous."

Kilmer Club Sets Party On Monday

"Mardi Gras" (at Tuesday) a buffet supper will be arranged for members of Blessed Sacrament's Joyce Kilmer Club which occur a day early, on "fat Monday," Feb. 20, when their present party is planned.

Costumes will be worn by many members and guests, but dress is optional. A live Valentine's orchestra will furnish the music for the carnival dancing. The brief business session will include election of new officers of the Joyce Kilmer Club.

Reservations should be made for the Mardi Gras before Saturday to enable the committee to complete arrangements. Reception committee includes: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knaut, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, Fran Grillo, Helen Gates, Jack McDonald and John Walsh.

The Rev. Matthew Tobin, C.S.R., spiritual director led a discussion on Mercy Killing He urged the men to be ready at all times to speak up on any occasion in defense of their faith. Philip Whigginton, chairman of the campaign for the Notre Dame Retreat House reported

Rotary Lists Play For Sunshine Camp

Rotary Sunshine Camp for Handicapped Children first opened in the summer of 1922. Ever since then, the Club has expanded its facilities to accommodate more and more children. Last year the camp was opened from June 28 through August 14, with 159 different boys and girls in attendance from 1 to 8 weeks. Children came from 42 local public and parochial schools.

The support of this activity is largely the result of public interest in the Rotary sponsored play performed by Rochester Community Players, under the direction of Robert Stevens. The play selected for this year will be "Broken Dishes," a three act comedy, new to Rochester. It will open March 4 for an extended run at the Community Play house.
