Music - In Every Child's Education

A course planned to give all children basic music instruction through plano class works has proved very popular with fourth grade students at Little Flower School, Chicago, where Sister Mary Yvonne (above) is music teacher. The children take turns at the plano.

When at their deaks, they follow the lesson on cardboard keyboards. Children who have had some music instruct on aid others to learn note reading. The course has been arranged with the cooperation of the American Music Conference.
