27 Nurses Receive Caps In Rites At St. Joseph's

Capping exercises were held at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Elmira, on Feb. 26. Twenty-seven young women including fifteen Elmiraans, received their caps from Sister Leona, Director of Nurses.
The spirit of nursing as symbolized by the lighted candle, was imparted to the new nurses by Miss Moira Mooney, president of the Junior Class. The class went in procession to the Little Flower Chapel where they recited the Florence Nightingale Pledge in unison. The class was presented by Rev. Philip E. McGhan, Hospital Chaplain.
Address was given by Rev. Joseph F. Hogan, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Owego. Exercises closed with the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The officers of Benediction were Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Birn, V. F. celebrant, Rev. Albert Simonetti, deacon, and Rev. Thomas Florack, sub-deacon.
The class made the nurses' Act of Consecration to Our Lady between the hymns of Benediction. Music was furnished by the Hospital Sisters' Choir with Miss Florence Hughes, organist. Members of the Junior Class acted as ushers.
FATHER HOGAN said that these nurses had chosen nursing because they felt that in it they would find happiness. He pointed out the four essentials for any nurse as physical health, so necessary in one who is to devote her life to the care of the sick; secondly a well equipped mind.
