The building fund for the Dominican Monastery in Elmira has now passed the $17,000 mark and is steadily climbing towards the goal of $20,000 according to Harry J. Lagonegro, local area chairman.

Plans are incomplete for construction, but it is expected that an addition will be erected to add ten more rooms, giving the Monastery capacity for 22 Sisters.

Keep Your Ladies of Charity Spiritual

By MARY E. FITZGERALD
 "Thanks to the Ladies of Charity," words spoken sincerely and often by the Dominican Sisters on Rosary Hill Even today when many Elmira women have found their way to the little white Monastery on West Church Street, the Ladies of Charity are still first in the hearts of the Community.

It was on that morning of our first affiliation, that Bishop Kearney said — "Keep your Ladies of Charity always conscious of their spiritual exercises." And so it has been, during ten long fruitful years — social functions have been occasional — material projects were many — but woven in and out with ever increasing frequency were the golden threads of the spiritual commitments of the individual, the committees and the organization as a whole.
