Family Guidance Group Sets First Corporate Communion

First annual group communion of the Immaculate Family Guidance group will take place Sunday, Mar. 19, feast of St. Joseph, following the children's Mass at 9 o'clock in Immaculate Conception Church.

Members of the group which is composed of parents of school children will occupy the seats on the center aisle and receive Communion after the children. Leo Minton, chairman of the Family Guidance group has outlined a workshop to be held during the month of April which will enable the parents to learn various aspects of craft work suitable for instructing their own children.
