Sunday Let's Pray for a Miracle

By MARY SULLIVAN

They look up stones therefore to cast at him...

But, instead, the truth is that one by one our diplomats have been made to look like little boys playing...

have are like so much flimsy cardboard when thrust at our enemies...

Sometimes people, including lots of Catholics get the idea that praying is the wacky wacky way...

What's so wacky about praying? If there isn't a God in heaven, then nothing...

Sunday we're going to pray for peace. Sunday we're going to pray for a miracle...

Can't We Watch Three Hours?

By MARY LENNON SNYDER

shopppers would point out the desirability of this course of action to all.

WE WOMEN might take the hint and through our various societies pledge as a group to stay away from all business places during the hours commemorating Christ's suffering and death upon the Cross...

Although there are many employers give those wishing to attend time off to do so, directed action on the part of Perhaps you'd like to see a long way off as we are trading through early melting snow drifts to attend daily Mass...

The fact that we did plan and arrange so that we would be free for those Three Hours and also by our good arrangement made it possible for those who ordinarily wait on us to be free to attend church service should make our presence in Church more acceptable to Our Saviour.
