Tickets are available at the Cenacle, 693 East Avenue or from any member of the committee.

'City of Kings' Play Opens 12 Performances on Saturday

Adults are requested to limit themselves to evening performances, as the number of pupils expected at the matinees may tax the 1109-capacity of the hall.

Matinees are scheduled Saturday and Sunday, March 25 and 26 at 2:30 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday, April 1 and 2, at the same hour. Various schools have been assigned particular matinees. Buses for the round trip will be supplied for schools guaranteeing a minimum of 50 passengers at regular rates.

This will be the second Lenten play to be sponsored by the Diocesan Holy Name Union. Tickets have been distributed by Holy Name Societies throughout the county.

Director Wilford Scott is widely known in the Rochester area for his work with the Pittsford Summer Theater and the Holy Redeemer Theater Guild. In the cast of 25 are several actors of wide local experience, including Raymond P. Weis, Edwin J. Dolan, Edward W. Murphy and John N. Nash.

SETS FOR THE play were constructed by William Andia, with lighting under the direction of Donald T. Verhoeven. Miss Zelda Lyons heads the costume committee. Stage Manager Joseph Placious is assisted by Ray Vorndran. Mrs. Blanche Freeman is assistant to Director Scott. Heading the properties committee is Mrs. Lawrence McVinnie. Abe Cook is sound engineer.

House manager is Arthur P. Farren. Frank J. Lange is in charge of ticket committees and Thomas G. Farrell is chairman of the box office committee. Ushers are under the direction of Miss Rita Trost, regent of Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae. Evening performance ushers will include:

Sat. Mar. 25, Mercy High School Alumnae, Miss Jeanne Schneider, chairman; Sun., Mar. 26, Nazareth Academy Alumnae, Miss Jane Laragy; Tuesday, St. Mary's School of Nursing Alumnae, Miss Marie Fink; Wednesday, IFCA, Mrs. Frank A. Eaton; Thursday, Sacred Heart Academy Alumnae, Mrs. Daniel E. Macken; Friday, St. Agnes High School Alumnae, Miss Patricia Coyne; Sat., Apr. 1, Nazareth College Alumnae, Miss Rose Ferro; Sun., Apr. 2, IFCA, Mrs. William Ryan.

MEMBERS OF the following Holy Name Societies will act as doormen for the eight performances: Blessed Sacrament, Murtagh P. Murphy, chairman; Sacred Heart, Theodore J. Houck; St. Ambrose, Clifford J. Monteau; St. Monica, Francis J. Wagner; St. Margaret Mary, W. Arthur Dugan; Holy Rosary, Frank R. Davis; St. John the Evangelist, Charles J. Hauser; St. Andrew, George Butts, Jr.

Father Nagle, author of "City of Kings," was awarded third prize for the drama in a nation-wide contest conducted by the Christophers. He is founder and director of the Blackfriars Theater Guild.

Blessed Martin, whose life is portrayed, was born in 16th Century Peru. Son of a liberated slave woman, he entered the Dominican Order as an oblate and humbly refused any higher state. He distributed alms, nursed the sick and built an orphanage in Lima after city officials had declared the project impossible. Martin was beatified in 1837. His cause for canonization is under consideration.

Sale, Tea Listed By Guild To Aid Holy Angels

"A "White Elephant" Sale under the direction of Miss Winifred Kelly will be held following the monthly meeting of the Good Shepherd Guild at the Hotel Seneca on Monday, March 27 at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. E. J. Rosse, Mrs. George McKay and Mrs. S. Smiles will assist in running the sale, the proceeds of which will be used for the week of the Guild at Holy Angels Home. Donations of wrapped useful articles that friends wish to contribute should be brought to the meeting.

MISS VIOLET ROWE, who is chairman of the Silver Tea, announces that Mrs. William Wahl, Miss Gertrude Fritz, Mrs. Leonard Oliver, and Mrs. Spang will head the committees for this event. The Silver Tea will be held on Sunday afternoon, April 16, at Rochester Historical Society, 485 East Avenue, from 3 until 6 p.m.

Miss Helen O'Harrigan will present the final reports on the successful completion of the annual Membership Drive, which closed on March 15.

Members of the Nominating Committee will be chosen at the meeting.
