

Kolping Society To Pack Food For Germany's Needy

Another "packing night" for members of the Rochester Catholic Kolping Society has been set for Friday, March 31 in St. Michael's hall in box clothing and food contributions for their needy brothers in Germany.

To date, more than 12 tons of supplies have been shipped by the Rochester group for the poor in Germany. According to officers, the need, especially among the expelled, is still great. Judging from the letters received.

THEY QUOTE a letter from

"With great joy we could distribute two additional packages among the local Kolping Brothers. We wish that you could have been present at the distribution, in order to partake in the joy and thankfulness which are shown through your presents.

"Yes, the need is so very great among our members and in our parish in the diaspora. The greater part of our members are expelled from the East who had to leave their homelands and belongings behind—and in many instances could save nothing else but their very lives."

Record Auto Show To Close Saturday

Rochester's first post-war Auto Show which has already passed the fondest hopes for its success will continue through Saturday night.

From the start last Monday people from Rochester and a radius of 75 miles around the city have flocked to the show in record-breaking numbers.

The East Main Armory has never been so beautifully decorated as it is today. Never has it housed such a brilliant display of magnificent new cars.

The show is a fine exhibition of the finest exhibition of its kind that Rochester has ever seen. Added to this is the music of Charles Siverson's orchestra.

Edward C. Schoen show manager, stated today that not a single display will be removed from the floor until the last visitor has departed late Saturday evening.
