Sodality Retreat, Vocation Talks, Held In Waverly

Waverly Sodality of St. James Parish here participated in a three day retreat and a special Vocation Month program during March.

With 35 boys and girls attending faithfully, the retreat was conducted by the Rev. Joseph Hogan of Owego. The services were for all high school pupils and was sponsored by the Sodality Eucharistic Committee.

OPENING ON Sunday with Communion in a body at 8 a. m. Mass, the retreat continued Monday and Tuesday, March 19, 20 and 21 Sunday conference was held at 4:30 p. m. with Benediction and Rosary and another conference at 7:30 p. m. Mass and Communion at 7 a. m. on the other days was followed by meditation. Conference was at 7:30 followed by Benediction and hymns sung by sodalists.

First meeting in the Vocation Month program consisted of a religious vocation discussion with the Rev. James Marvin, Sister Mary Lourdes of Elmira Catholic High School and Sister Leo Marie of St. Mary's leading. In the second meeting a panel discussion was led by Dr. D. Motany, Rita Sullivan, nurse; Mrs. William O'Brien, Jr., home-maker; Lester Marshall, engineer; James Flynn, lawyer, and John Daley, teacher.

FATHER TOMAINO, S.A.

The retreat for the students of St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary will take place during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week. The Retreat Master will be the Rev. Stanislaus Tomaino of the Society of the Atonement.

Father Tomaino is a native of Long Branch, N. J. He entered the Friars of the Atonement at Graymont, in 1924. He spent his Novitiate at St. Mary's in 1926 and received his vows of Religion the following year.

IN 1917 HE was ordained to the priesthood at the Immaculate Conception Shrine in Washington D. C.

Father Tomaino is a graduate of the Theological School of the Catholic University, where he received his Licentiate in Theology in 1927. At present Father Tomaino is a member of the faculty of St. John's Atonement Seminary in Montour Falls where he likewise serves as spiritual advisor to the seminarians.

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BISH

Last Wednesday evening the pupils and faculty were honored to hear a talk by the Rev. Michael Heintzen, O.S.B. in keeping with the Vocation Month Program of our diocese. Father told about his experiences as a Benedictine Missionary to East Africa and explained the activities and requirements of missionaries in general.

He stressed the particular need of priests, brothers and Sisters in the Missionary Orders at present and distributed information about the work of the Benedictine Order.

Retreat Planned

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be retreat days for the students and faculty. The Rev. Frederick Waiz has accepted an invitation to conduct the retreat. Silence will be a "must" during the school hours of the retreat and all are expected to cooperate.

Bitter Sweet News

There is one thing that people always have plenty of. Can you guess? Why, trouble of course. Here at Catholic High there is no exception but lately we have been having a generous portion of trouble's opposite at last. Along the trouble line many of the students have been victims of the flu, gripe and colds and even the faculty did not escape the old bug.

The Junior Home Room, Moderated by Sister Teresa Care, has been ill and out of school with it the past week. Some other glad incidents are worthy of notice. Freshman John Early received hospital treatment for dog bites last week and injuries received from a broken dish sent Junior Esther Manzo to the hospital for treatment.

But now the good news. In honor of the Feast of St. Joseph the students were blessed with a holiday from school last Monday. Then due to the heavy snowfall the students enjoyed an unexpected holiday last Thursday. But that's not all! Friday afternoon the students received another surprise, a free afternoon because all teachers had to make out exams in Rochester.

Sport Lites

The Senior Basketball Team handed out defeats to both the teams they encountered last week. The boys edged the North side Lakers 91 to 83 and brushed off the southside All Stars by a score of 80 to 68.
