Elmira Catholic Highlights

By Regina Bush

Last week's highlight at Elmira Catholic High School was the retreat which was conducted by the Rev. Pedro A. Walz of St. John's Church. The retreat which consisted of inspiring talks, alder, Stations of the Cross, Benediction and finally on Friday Mass and Communion Breakfast, was greatly enjoyed by all the students. The Communion Breakfast, sponsored by the Senior Class and directed by a group of Senior Mothers, was held in the assembly hall following the breakfast. The students took advantage of another free day.

Approaching Oratorials

On Tuesday the students participating in the Bishop's Oratorials will present their speeches to the student body in the assembly room and one boy and one girl will be chosen from them to represent the school in a contest to be held in Auburn. Those who will speak will be Andrew Van Herdy, Francis Dowling, John McInerney, Edwin Manis, John Moffatt and Paul Dally.

Easter Vacation

Wednesday at noon the students and faculty will leave Elmira for the long awaited Easter vacation. Incidentally school will be open April 17 again.

Sport News

The sport news is pretty back this week. Catholic High's baseball team lost its 2-2 to the Riverside Reds last Friday night after enjoying a long winning streak.

Social Highlights

Once again the Senior girls are making arrangements for a punch party to be held during Easter Vacation. Kitty Ryan has generously volunteered the use of her home for the occasion.

Senior Review

Jean Golata is one of this week's Seniors whom we are going to interview. Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Golata of 623 1/2 Lake Street. She's a tall, slender brunette and very very original. Jean knows what she wants and you just can't get her off the track. At school Jean has majored in the business subjects and done well too. She's happiest, however, away from school and all the cares and troubles of the old grind.

Jean loves her swimmer and finds baseball and dancing close favorites. But what do you suppose Jean can't stand? Why cats and tennis. Of course Jean hasn't announced any definite plans about her future work but she's quite interested in child welfare and the like. We suspect that someday we'll be hearing about the great social worker Jean Golata.

The other senior for this week is Dolores Gubbe. As we call her "Gubbie" or "Raine" Gubbe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gubbe of 94 Grand Central Avenue. She's tall, an olive brunette and has beautiful brown eyes.

This girl is very happy, goes crazy about everything and even declares an her school subjects as suitable to her taste. At home you'll find her listening to recordings by Russ Morgan and

Easter Fete Set At St. Casimir

A gay Easter party is being planned for the Recreation Club, the Sociality and Wanda Circle Ladies of St. Casimir's Church, Elmira.

A buffet supper will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m. by the Wanda Circle. Dancing will be enjoyed from 8 to 12. Music will be furnished by Joseph Augustine's Orchestra. The Recreation Club will have charge of entertainment and refreshments.

Honorary Chairmen are the Rev. Ladislav J. Szczepanski and Rev. Valentine A. Jankowiak.

Chairman, Mrs. John Lepkowski is being assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. John Cloke, hostess, Mrs. Edward Lepkowski, admistrs. Mrs. Thomas Wesneski, food, Mrs. George Price, buffet room, Mrs. Dennis Yeager, check

Frankie Laine and Perry Como are with the crowd. It's quite hard to keep up sentimental Mr. Doones's favorite song "One and while one, give you a little variety by singing bits of "That Brooklyn Love Song"

Raine's another pizza fan and spends the greater part of her summer vacations eating it. Her chief dislikes are rainy days disagreeable people and to be awoken by the phone ringing. Gubbie has no definite plans for the future but says she's going to get a job as soon as she graduates. We who know her well have no worries about her future because she's one girl who can hold her own with ease.

Boston College Alumni Plan Center

Boston College alumni will convert the Tudor-style Providence House at 74 Garrison wealth Ave. on the College campus into an alumni center at an anticipated cost of $75,000 according to a joint announcement by Very Rev. William L. Keisher, S.J., president of the College, and alumni president John B. Atkinson, Cambridge city manager.

No public appeal will be made for funds to support the project, which will be financed through the third annual alumni fund program now in progress under the supervision of the College public relations director, David J. Lucey, Saugus, selectman and graduate of the class of 1940.

"HE HAS RISEN"

This is the day
 He Made for gladness.
 He brewed it out of His heartbreak.
 He wove it out of defeat.
 He made it clean
 with His tears,
 He informed it with victory.

FOR EASTER WEAR

THE STRIDE RITE SHOE

Patent, Blue or White

Favorite

teen styles for sub-teens

Here are the shoes your style-conscious young one's been clamoring for. (And you don't have to tell her, but they incorporate every one of the famous Stride Rite foot-health features. They give the correct support needed for supple little bones — they hug the heel firmly — and they allow ample growing room ahead of the toes.) Bring her in and turn her loose!
