End of Msgr. Sheen Series Prompts Letters to WHAM

Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen concludes his 16-week series of addresses on the NBC Catholic Hour at 5 p.m. this Saturday on WHAM with a dramatic Easter Message in which he foretells the triumph of the Risen Christ over the skepticism and atheism of the modern world.

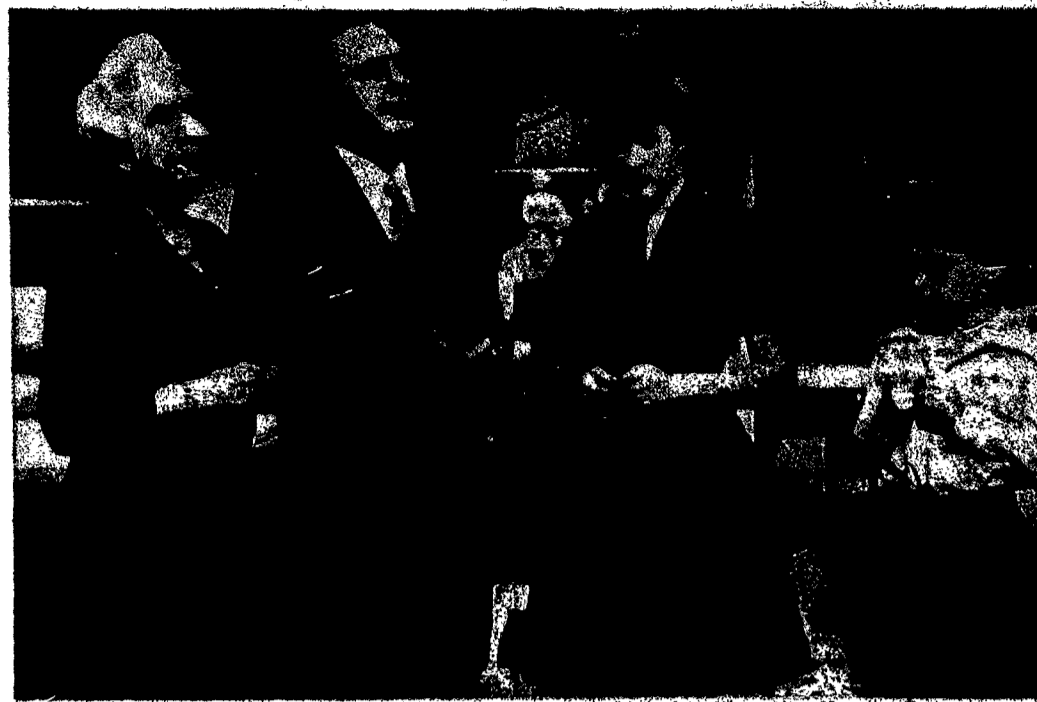

This series rebroadcast by WHAM as a special courtesy for the past 4 months has brought the national Sunday "Catholic Hour" to Rochester diocesan listeners for the first time in local radio history. Letters of appreciation addressed to "Program Director WHAM, Humboldt St., Rochester" will help to insure similar rebroadcast privileges when Monsignor Sheen begins his 1959 series next January.

FROM NOW ON "The Catholic Hour" must be dialed at WBEN 900 K.C. Buffalo, 16 p.m. each Sunday. Rev. Joseph Manning, noted Redemptorist missionary from Boston, opens his series on "Security on the Sidewalk" this Sunday evening. His talks will apply Christian principles to everyday living.

REGOTSY IN the United States, the Kansas City gangsters and the relation of religion to happiness in marriage are prime topics from the week's news to be discussed on "The Morale Behind the Headlines" program of the Courier-Journal at 12:10 p.m. on WHAM this Sunday by Father Richard Tomney, associate editor.

FOR INFORMATIVE and entertaining Bible stories tune WARC each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. to hear The Greatest Story Ever Told. A much-honored series of dramatizations will refresh adult memories and touch the children.

Ticket Demand Brisk for Opening of Passion Play

Musical — (NU) — Rehearsals for the Oberammergau Passion Play scheduled to open May 21, have progressed to the stage of the Passion Play theater.

The 40-piece orchestra and the 40-voice choir, too, have had joint rehearsals with the principal soloists. Every third man, woman and child of the village population, which counts some 6,000, takes part in the play. THE AUDITORIUM can hold 6,000 people. Reports that all performances are sold out are not correct, although the demand for tickets from all over the world constantly grows in number. Some 200 letters are received by the management daily. Travel problems have been alleviated requests for permission to open beer stands and other mobile sales ventures. All these applications are refused because the municipality is anxious to preserve the religious atmosphere in the village, which is a prerequisite for the spirit of the Oberammergau tradition.

As soon as possible, the municipality will make the part of Oberammergau received letters from numerous well-wishers who want to get his autograph, or permission to bring his services on a tour, and even people in Oberammergau who think he could help them out with a personal loan. At the same time, the Oberammergau Passion Play has received marriage offers from people unaware of the fact that under special conditions they could not play her part at the were a married woman. A beautiful official picture folder showing the principal actors and Oberammergau scenery has just been issued by the municipality in various languages and will be made available through travel agencies all over the world. It includes practical travel information and data on the history of the Passion Play.

Movie of Cardinal's Trial Angers Kremlin Radio-Voice

London — (NC) — The Hollywood production, "Guilty of Treason," dramatizing the true facts in the case of His Eminence Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, has been a source of disturbance to the Kremlin. This is evident from the tone of a Radio Moscow Hungarian language broadcast heard here.
