Third Order of St. Francis

Ceremony of profession will take place at the meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis Sunday afternoon, Apr. 23 at 3:30 p.m. in St. Patrick's Church. Those who have been novices for one full year may be professed.

Tertulians are urged to consider if their special duty to pray for peace and to act for peace during the Holy Year. Father Raymond O.F.M. says, as a beginning, that it is necessary to bear wrongs patiently.

"ST. FRANCIS meant for his Tertulians to carry on this message of peace by their characterization of Christ and with His spirit of love and generosity. If we are to have peace in our times, is not this the spiritual work that needs to be performed? Is not the hatred among nations the result of a refusal to bear wrongs patiently? Is there not a growing bitterness between the classes due to the fact that this Christian virtue is no longer practiced?"

"Much must be borne for the sake of Christ, if love and peace are to flourish in the home, in the circle of your relatives, friends and neighbors, as well as among classes and nations. Therefore, he who bears your wrongs so patiently turns to you and says, 'Learn of Me because I am meek and humble of heart.'"
