Christ's Hand In Your Daughter's

By MARY E. FITZGERALD. As you scan the pages of our newspaper, Catholic mothers and fathers, are you not amazed at the publicity in the interest of teenagers?

Of our newspaper, Catholic mothers and fathers, are you not amazed at the publicity in the interest of teenagers? Have you not sometimes wondered if anyone ever tries to find ways and means to keep High School Students closer to God and Home? Why, oh why, must all the emphasis be on recreation outside the walls of dwellings which should be other Nazareth?

If you are seeking some common ground on which youth and age could meet once again, the writer would suggest that you turn your attention to the Barret Retreat League for High School Students.
