The report comes from "RichBeher Nachrichtendienst," Catho- archy's council. Bishop Tadeus.

Reports of Christlicher Nachrichtendienst, Munich religious news service, tell of an incident in a Hungarian school where pupils found one of the crucifixes taken out of class rooms by order of the communist authorities. They immediately put it back on the wall n a spontaneous move of profest.

When the teacher asked who had done it, the whole class replied, "We all did it!" Finally the principal appealed to the punits explaining to them that actions consequences might arise for the whole school and their families, if the crucifix were found back on its former place. Thereupon the pupil, who had bung it on the wall, quietly removed it again while the whole class remained in
