

Among Women

The Phoenix Of Trumansburg

By MARY LENNON SNYDER

President, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women

An example of remarkable parish spirit was given me a few weeks ago when I went over to a Communion Breakfast for the women of St. James the Apostle Parish, Trumansburg.

The pastor, Father Leonard Kelly, was quick to tell me that this room was included in the church not because babies or small children are unwelcome in any Catholic Church, but because many mothers stay home with the baby rather than risk distracting others in church.

ON THIS particular Sunday there had been an extra Mass at 7 o'clock so that the men of the parish could attend before acting as a committee to prepare, serve and cleanup the women's Communion Breakfast.

THIS SMALL room, glass enclosed at the rear of the church, is a room where mothers may take small children there and assist at Mass and hear the words of the priest brought in by amplifiers.

Because we were afraid that we might miss Mass through some unforeseen eventuality, Mrs. George M. Frank the Aurora Deanery President, and I assisted at an early Mass in our own parishes before setting out for Trumansburg.

WITH EXAMS JUST around the corner, it might be a good idea for us to remind ourselves that the answers are in the book.

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALY'S

By MARY TINGLEY DALY

There's a mutual child-tending service in our street that really works. There's nothing official about it; no nurses, no child psychologists, no experienced teachers.

Today it was just Marnie and Ginny, the feminine contingent of our four neighborhood charges. . . and it was raining!

Ma's a Baby Sitter Who Doesn't Sit Much

There's a mutual child-tending service in our street that really works. There's nothing official about it; no nurses, no child psychologists, no experienced teachers.

There was Marnie, wedged tightly between the bedspreads and the footboard of that upper bunk, feet dangling face red with fright and exertion.
