French Play Cast Includes Nazareth, Aquinas Students

Senior French students of Nazareth Academy will team up with a group of Aquinas Institute students to produce a French play "L'Auberge du Cheval Blanc" Wednesday, May 10 at 8:30 p.m. in the Academy auditorium, Lake Ave. The French play deals with the problems of two American tourists, Thomas Hartzel and Frank Doyle of Aquinas, passing through France enroute to Rome Stranded in an out-of-the-way French village, they have great difficulty ordering a meal at "The White Horse Inn" because of their inability to make the natives understand their American French. The innkeeper's daughter Juan Kinsky, rescues the Americans from their predicament, with her knowledge of English studied in the school.

Atonement Friar Speaks To Club At Painted Post

Corning. - Guest speaker for the third annual banquet of the Catholic Women's Club of Painted Post was Brother Roger McEarny, S.A. of Monks of the Abbey of Atonement, introduced by the Rev. Daniel V. Hogan, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, the speaker chose as the basis for his talk the life of a Brother. Brother pointed out that "among lay people there are many false opinions concerning the vocation of a religious Brother. Some think one becomes a Brother because of lack of education (others look upon the life of a Brother as one of servitude in the worldly sense "Of course," said Brother Roger "this is not true because many of the Brothers have good educations. Furthermore the life of a religious Brother is one of cheerful service, deep humility and ardent love. Like Christ

Brother Roger, a native of Brooklyn entered the Society of the Atonement at the Motherhouse in Graymour during June, 1945. Two months later he went to St. Joseph's Novitiate in Saranac Lake where for the next six months he spent his postulancy. On January 25th, 1946 he was invested with the habit of the Society and two years later he took his first vows. For the next seven months Brother Roger was stationed at Graymour. On September 17th, 1948 he and another Brother and a Friar Priest were sent to Monkton Falls to reconstruct Cook Academy and to prepare the building for the use of the Friars as a Seminary. The banquet, which was served at the Knights of Columbus Home by the Ladies of Columbus, was presided over by Mrs. Clarence J. Bonnell, president. The entertainment program included solos by Betty Bradley, accompanied by Mrs. Edna Ward and group singing led by Miss Helen Cumiskey with Mrs. Catherine Logue at the piano. Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. William Reed, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, and moderator of the group. Brother Edmund Sheridan, S.A. of Montour Falls was a guest.

Mass Marks 50th Anniversary Of Sister M. Cassia

Auburn. - A half-century to the present and of teaching in the parochial schools of the Rochester Diocese the late Sister M. Cassia was celebrated Friday, April 28 by Sister M. Cassia. A Solemn High Mass in honor of the beloved nun was sung at St. Mary's Church by the children of the school. Fr. Rev. Magr. William E. Conner was celebrant with Rev. E. Leo M. Mannus a former pupil of Sister Cassia as deacon and Rev. John P. Norris, subdeacon. SISTER CASSIA, who has taught the first grade at St. Mary's for the past 25 years was born in Rochester, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Henneacy. The family came to Auburn when she was a child. She took her vows at the Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Rochester and taught school in that city before coming to St. Mary's.

Sister Cassia was flooded with cards, telegrams and letters from former pupils and friends and also received many personal greetings. Following the Mass the school children were dismissed from classes in observance of the golden anniversary.

St. Francis Parish Plans Rose Garden In Parking Lot

Auburn. When completed, a beautiful St. Francis Rose Garden on the property of St. Francis of Assisi Church, north side of lower Clark St. will attract parishioners and other citizens of Auburn the Rev. John Nacca pastor announced this week. The new park featuring a statue of Our Blessed Mother in the center will be planted with shrubbery, grass and flowers predominantly roses. Members of the parish have been planning the rose garden for several weeks. Actual work on the park itself will begin in about two weeks and will be completed sometime in the Fall. Father Nacca said "We of ST. FRANCIS are very happy at the thought of having our own garden," Father Nacca said. It will be the first thing the parishioners will see when they leave the church after services. Although the park will be owned and maintained by the parish it will be open to the entire city at all times. We want everyone to feel free to visit the park whenever they please.
