

Fr. Malley Tells CDA Of Women's Role In Democracy

Hornell, May 11.—The responsibility of their citizenship to maintain a democracy which is a logical outgrowth of the American way of life, the Rev. John P. Malley, associate pastor of St. Ann's Church, spoke at the annual convention of the CDA, held at the home of the Daughters of America, Washington, D. C., in the evening in the Metropolitan Hotel.

There were about 100 delegates present at the convention. Malley's address was the first of the day. He stressed the fact that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow.

In reviewing the history of the American people, Malley said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow.

Malley's address was well received by the delegates. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow. He said that the women of today should be the women of tomorrow.

Speakers At Knights' Breakfast

Prominent at the Elmiria Council, Knights of Columbus (Communion Breakfast preceding the Major Degree Exemplification, Sunday, were above (from left) Rev. Alexander Beaton, S.A., Guardian of St. John's Atoneement Seminary, principal speaker; Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, Council Chaplain; Rev. Philip E. McMan, St. Joseph's Hospital, Chaplain; Standing (from left) Thomas F. O'Brien, toastmaster and Samuel A. DeLima, grand knight.

Tridium To Open Unity Need Told K. of C. Monday In Honor Elmira Third Degree Class Of St. Therese

A Tridium in honor of St. Therese will open in St. Anthony Church, Elmira, on Monday evening, May 15, and continue each evening with solemn closing on Wednesday.

Special prayers, sermon and Benediction of the blessed Sacrament will be held at the services commencing at 7:30 p.m. On Wednesday evening at the closing services a solemn procession will be held together with blessing and distribution of roses.

Veneration of a relic of St. Therese will take place after the evening services. Daily Masses will be celebrated at 7:30 and 8 A. Solemn High Mass in honor of St. Therese will be celebrated on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Family Communion Sunday will again be observed at St. Anthony's Church on Mother's Day with family groups receiving Holy Communion at all Masses.

Coming Players Reorganize Club

Coming Water L. Poland was named temporary president at a recent reorganization meeting of St. Patrick's Dramatic Club. Serving with Mr. Poland are Miss Norma Kosty, vice president; Richard Brady, secretary; and Robert Sutherland, treasurer.

The Rev. Joseph Dailey, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, is moderator. Meetings are scheduled for the first Tuesday of each month and a membership drive is under way with Karl Krist as chair man.

Forty Hours

Members of the Forty Hours Society are scheduled in the following manner: May 14—Immaculate Conception, St. Francis Assisi, Rochester, St. Patrick, Elmira, Atlanta, Hammondport, Leeseter, Livonia Center, Ludlowville; Newark; Ovid; Owasco; Port Byron.

Father Tormey Listed To Talk At Diocesan HNU Convention

The Rev. Richard Tormey, associate editor of the Catholic Courier Journal, will be principal speaker at a diocesan convention of the Holy Name Union at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, May 21, in Aquinas Hall, Elmira. Father Tormey, who conducts the "Courier Journal of the Air" each Sunday noon over Station WHAM, will have a message of importance to every Holy Name man. Daniel E. Macken, Diocesan Union president, declared.

DINNER RESERVATIONS should be made through the Holy Name Central Office no later than Wednesday, May 17. Macken pointed out in a letter to Holy Name Societies throughout the diocese.

The annual convalescence with the program expanded this year to allow more time for the business session, will open at 11:30 a.m. in the school auditorium with the celebration of Mass by the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, Union spiritual director. Father Tormey's address will follow the 12:30 p.m. dinner in the cafeteria, with the business session slated at 2 p.m. in the auditorium.

AMONG SEVERAL important matters facing the delegates, Macken said, will be a proposed amendment to the Diocesan Union constitution, copies of which have been sent to all affiliates. Details of the last year's activities will include a report on the Holy Hour conducted by the Union last Fall in Red Wing stadium, and results of the "City of Kings" play sponsored during Paschal Week.

Each parish Holy Name Society is entitled to five official representatives at the convention—spiritual director, president, secretary and two delegates. All other Holy Name men are urged to attend.

Refreshments were in charge of Mesdames Anthony Galli, Michael Kennedy, John J. Cunningham, Michael Gonta, Joseph Lavin, John McFall, Timothy O'Connell, Leslie T. Reilly and Edmund Tarantelli. On the reception committee were Mrs. James Paul, Loretta Anthony Palmer and Raymond Talkina.

Ladies of Columbus Initiate 14 Members

Cornelia Mrs. Michael Mahoney headed the degree team which was in charge of the initiation of 14 members into the Ladies of Columbus recently. Assisting Mrs. Mahoney were Mesdames Warren Bonnell, Francis Gorman, Robert Fitzgerald, and Miss Gertrude Marx.

The Rev. Joseph Dailey, moderator, spoke briefly following initiation. New members are: Mesdames James Ward, Charles Niles, Angelo Fratarrangelo, Irma Formio, William O'Hara, Clarence Roe, Joseph Cragan, Andrew Zadany, Robert Box, Fred Carbia, Dorothy Fisher, James Berio, Edgardo Tarantelli and James Wurth.

Arrangements were made at the meeting to hold the annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, June 4. Daniel F. Kennedy was named general chairman and will release complete details of the affair at an early date.

Lourdes HN Men Plan Communion

Members made plans to play host to the Boy Scouts and Cubs of the parish Troop at a meeting of Our Lady of Lourdes Holy Name Society, Elmira, held last Monday night.

These two groups will be the guests of the Holy Name Society at a Pioneer game at Dunn Field on Friday evening, May 19. Arrangements were made at the meeting to hold the annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, June 4. Daniel F. Kennedy was named general chairman and will release complete details of the affair at an early date.

2 Parish Groups Plan Communion On Mother's Day

Final plans have been completed for the annual joint Communion breakfast of the Holy Name Societies of St. Mary's and St. Patrick's Parishes, Elmira.

The breakfast will be held on Sunday—Mother's Day—at the Mack Towner Hotel following reception of Holy Communion by the two groups at the T.M. Masses in their respective churches.

The Rev. John W. Albeck, O.P., local Dominican preacher and National Director of the Holy Name Society will be the speaker.

Attorney J. Donald Froney will act as toastmaster.

C. J. Milliken Listed For Talk To St. John Unit

Cornelius J. Milliken will be principal speaker at the 10th annual Mother's Day Breakfast of Our Lady of St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira. The breakfast will be held at the Langwell Hotel on Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

Mr. Milliken is a prominent Catholic layman and has spoken before various groups and has always brought a most interesting message to his audience on these occasions. He is Telegraph Editor of Elmira Star Gazette and Past Grand Knight of the Elmiria Council, Knights of Columbus. He is also an active member of the Catholic War Veterans.

All women of the parish are invited to attend the breakfast and may make reservations by calling Mrs. Mary Mahoney at 2-5002 or Mrs. Charles Mahoney at 2-1281.

161 N. Main St. - Elmira
Opposite Mark Twain

Mother's Day Gifts THAT MEAN MORE!

DANIEL GREENE SLIPPERS
IN ALL COLORS
SATIN — FELT — MOIRE
$4.50 and up

QUAKER HOSE
$1.25 - $1.35 per pair

BAGS
BY RONAY AND MADEMOISELLE
IN BLACK - BLUE - NAVY - RED - GREEN CALF
$9.95 and up
Plus Tax

SELBY ARCH PRESERVER SHOES
NO FINER GIFT

CHARGE ACCOUNTS INVITED
OPEN FRIDAY EVENING

Gosper-Kelly
INC.
160 N. MAIN ST.

RED OR GREEN CALF $14.95

Poetry Talk Set By Library Unit

St. Christopher Library group will hold the last book meeting on Sunday, May 14 at 3 o'clock in the Library rooms at State and Church Streets, Elmira. This date represents a change from the original schedule.

Miss Florence Callahan will be guest speaker and will present a paper on Catholic Poetry. A well known teacher of English and Dramatics at a local high school, Miss Callahan will be presented by Miss Grace Miller. Miss Teresa Hughes will give vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. John E. Haven. Members of the Library group and their friends are invited.

Sheehan's

how pleasant to go "peasant" this summer in Cotton dress duets

(Illustration of two women in elegant dresses)

sold separately or together... blouses $1.98 skirts $2.95

Swing your partners, catch your breath in full-gathered skirts topped by blouses specially for them. The skirt is made of bonded with contrasting contrasting prints with wide horizontal stripes in contrasting colors.