Woman's Duty Explained To S. H. League Members

Auburn — A woman's first duty is her home but in her spare time, there is great work to be done by the Catholic women. Mrs. George A. Snyder, president of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, told members of the Sacred Heart League of Holy Family Church here Sunday.

To love all and to judge no one to exercise at all times the most perfect charity in thought and in speech.

The Rev. Msgr. John A. Conway, V.F. pastor of Holy Family parish gave the invocation at the breakfast Mrs. James Condon, vice-president, opened the program with words of welcome and extended thanks for the support and cooperation of the members introducing Mrs. Anne Butler as toastmistress.

A large group of Sacred Heart members received Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass Sunday and attended the annual Communion breakfast in the North Street auditorium.

Teaching her theme from the Holy Family High School motto "Teach me goodness, discipline and wisdom" Mrs. Snyder applied the virtues to membership in the Sacred Heart League.

"A WISE MEMBER is a prudent member and one who does not lose sight of the importance of putting first things first," she said. "As Catholic women our first duty is to our husbands, our homes, and our families, but in the leisure time which we could fritter away on idle pastimes we can devote ourselves to the great work of Catholic Action and at times we can pray for those who are our leaders."

The Catholic leader told the women that fear of critical judgment keeps many women from accepting positions of responsibility in organizations. "As disciplined members of an organization we should avoid the parasites of laziness, belief in chance and belief in persecution," she asserted.

Mrs. Snyder said that it should be the aim of the members of the Catholic organization.
