The camp has been put in top shape for the season and boys from all sections of the Diocese of Rochester are registered. The director said that boys from Elmira, Seneca Falls, Waterloo and other points are enjoying the many facilities at the Conesus Lake camp.

Seminarians from St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries are on the staff. This year there are three of the St. Bernard's men who served in World War 2. They are John Hempel, program director, who was an Army Captain; William Roche and Robert Kanka.

The kitchen and infirmary are supervised by eight Sisters of Mercy who were agreeably surprised on taking over duties this year to find a completely renovated kitchen designed by Edward M. Lorachelder, Rochester architect and prominent Catholic layman.

The event will begin about 5 p.m. with a softball game. Dinner and other sports will complete the program. Jim Ehmman is in charge of the sports program and Emmett Norton in charge of food.
