Pastor in Dansville Paper Cites Value of Happy Home
 The Rev. John C. O'Donnell, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Dansville stresses the value of a happy home and stable family in an article, one of a series, written for the Genesee Country Express and Advertiser, published in Dansville.
 The series of articles are being prepared, one each week, by one of the nine clergymen in the town.
 Father O'Donnell's article is based on a visit to Malvern, the home of Napoleon and Josephine in France. What is said there, he writes, is a warning against the tragedy of a broken home.
 "It reminds mankind," Father O'Donnell states, "that the building of a stable home, where peace and love abound, is man's supreme achievement and the source of his deepest and most abiding happiness."

Clean Movies For Children Shown On Marketman's Urge
 Insistence of a businessman, who is also a father, on the showing of sound wholesome movies Saturday afternoons at a neighborhood movie house is working out satisfactorily for all concerned.
 This is the belief of Frank J. Grinnan, market owner at 1525 Lake Ave., who entered into an agreement to advertise his business at the Riviera Theater, Lake Ave. corner of Flower City Park.
 Grinnan's arrangement with the theater is for a ten-week period. He is featuring "Hopalong Cassidy" skates at the theater.
BEFORE CLOSING his deal, Grinnan, father of three children, made sure that the Saturday afternoon programs would include only wholesome and clean entertainment.
 He reports that the management was cooperative and scheduled Hopalong Cassidy, other westerns, cartoons and other film features appealing to children and at the same time unobjectionable on the part of parents for their children to see.
 The management, he said after two weeks, is most pleased with the response and attendance. Parents are now willing to allow their children to attend the shows, which conclude at 4:30 p.m.
 The originator of the idea resides at 50 Ridge Road West and is a member of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral Parish.
