Rosary Campaign Launched By Cleveland Women

Cleveland (NC) - "Operation Fatima" a telephone campaign for daily Rosaries for peace...

Each new recruit in turn is asked to enlist five others and to request each of those to do likewise.

The purpose of the campaign, which has as its slogan "A daily Rosary for every Communist," is to carry out the peace program laid down by Our Lady at Fatima, Portugal.

"Operation Fatima" is not a chain affair, explained Mrs. Dan Mulligan, president of the club. Neither does the promise to say the Rosary daily blind under pain of sin...

Readers Prefer Non-Fiction At Catholic Evidence Library

Non-fiction leads all other types of preferred reading at Rochester's Catholic Evidence Library.

Summer and winter reading tastes don't seem to vary much with the library's patrons, according to Miss Lucy Sheehan, librarian in attendance on Monday evenings.

Patrons of the 17-year-old reading room, just off the lobby of Columbus Civic Centre on Chestnut Street, include students, teachers, lawyers, housewives, industrial workers and business persons...

Nazareth College Announces New Courses in Journalism

An introductory survey course, emphasizing the consumer side and laying the foundation for the production side of journalism...

Planned for next year are courses in Reporting and Magazine Article-Writing. In these advanced courses, students will be encouraged to write with an eye toward having their work published.

THE OTHER courses to be offered this year are Principles of Journalism and Radio Writing.

Chaplains Appointed To Mental Hospitals

Appointment of seven clergymen as full-time resident chaplains in Minnesota's mental hospital system has been announced by Governor Luther W. Youngdahl.

They are the first of a group that in time will number 18 men, or two chaplains for each of the nine institutions, and represent a new phase of the governor's mental health program.

The number of chaplains from each denomination or faith has been determined by a study of the religious affiliations of state hospital patients...
