Lady of Lourdes Church Debt-Free

Repayment of more than $100,000 in loans during the last nine years, as well as paying the running expenses of the parish during that period, has brought Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Elmira, out of debt, according to the Rev. Leo G. Schwab, pastor.

REV. LEO SCHWAB

Announcement of the debt-free status was made in the first issue of "The Grotto," new parish bulletin.
"The fine contributions" of parishioners is expressed in the bulletin, which notes that a fund currently is being set aside for the building of a school and convent for the parish.
Accomplishment of the parish in paying off such a large amount, the bulletin stated, is all the more remarkable because of the fact that very few fund-raising activities were held.
Two years ago Father Schwab celebrated his 30th anniversary of ordination.

Final Rites Held For Miss Conroy

Funeral services for Miss Isabel Conroy, 228 North Goodman St., were held Sunday, Aug. 5, in Corpus Christi Church. Requiem Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Thomas McVeigh, with the Rev. Charles Connell as deacon and Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart as sub-deacon.

Miss Conroy died Wednesday, Aug. 2, 1950, at Strong Memorial Hospital following a long illness. Bearers were Robert Kanka, William Kinney, Thomas Ashe, George Ryan, Leonard Currier and Leo Richards. The Rev. John Donahue gave the blessing at the grave.
Miss Conroy was a member of the Rosary Society of Corpus Christi Church, St. Elizabeth's Guild, Mercy Guild, Nazareth Guild, and the Catholic Women's Club. She had been a teacher in the Rochester school system for thirty years.
Surviving are a sister, Martha Conroy; two brothers, Eugene of Warsaw and Urban of Buffalo, and several nieces and nephews.

To Speak Here

Mrs. Lomb is survived by three daughters, Sister Grace Madeline of the Sisters of St. Joseph, St. Alphonsus Parish, Auburn; Miss Elizabeth Lomb, Mrs. John A. Heeks; two sons, Fred E. and George, F. Lomb; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

Firm Uses Films To Sell Houses

"Gallery of Homes" is the title of a new exhibit set up by John T. Notnagle, Inc. in which motion pictures and color slides have been introduced into the real estate field at the firm's offices in the Granite Building.

John T. Notnagle, president of the company explained today that the exhibit, now in operation, will save time and expense for prospective buyers in selecting properties.
Housed in a specially outfitted quarters adjacent to the offices, the "Gallery" displays hundreds of black and white prints of homes for sale in the Rochester area. Darkened for the showing of 16 mm. Kodachrome motion pictures and color transparencies, the gallery allows prospective buyers to study in detail properties listed.

Mrs. Marion C. Maier is in charge. The gallery is open daily from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. with changes in films and still pictures made three times weekly to limit the display to current offerings.
Notnagle is active in Catholic circles and has held top offices in several organizations. He is a member of Holy Rosary parish.

Organist Gets Copyright For New Hymn

Florinda M. Ferraresi, organist for 17 years at St. Joseph's Church, Rochester, has received a copyright for his composition, "Queen of Peace, Pray for Us." The work was dedicated to the mothers, wives and sweethearts of the men in service.

The hymn is an "Ave Maria" in four-four time in the key of A-flat major. The work is written for organ and tenor solo, as an undertone, the composition carries the distant sound of bells.

Ferraresi reharmonized for the organ the Old Pontifical March and sent a copy to His Holiness Pope Pius XII through the Secretary of State sent his thanks and Apostolic blessing.
Another hymn composed by Ferraresi is titled, "We Long for God." The veteran organist also composed, "A Tear On the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier," a funeral march.
