Parents To View Results of PAL Day Camp Success

Many Catholic children enjoyed the P.A.L. Day Camp conducted at Durand Eastman Park during July and August according to Police Captain Henry H. Jensen in charge of the Youth Bureau. Boys and girls from Rochester representing every creed, race and nationality attended the camp.

The record shows that an average of 60 girls a day attended three days a week on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. The boys average was 62 a day on Monday and Wednesday.

P.A.L. Camp Director was Policewoman Helen A. J. Fink of St. Augustine's Parish who was assisted by 8 college students as camp counselors.

The camp was closed Wednesday August 28, and celebration of its success will take place at a Parents' Night in the Edgerton Park Stardust Room, Thursday, August 30. Campers will demonstrate what they have learned in the craftwork, Acts and color movies will complete the program.

RBI Opens Sept. 5, Adds Army Course

Rochester Business Institute will open its regular Fall term with registration of new students Sept. 5 according to Ernest W. Veigel, Jr. RBI president.

More than 350 advance registrations have been received by the registrar, Mrs. Marguerite M. Carl, and more are coming in daily. Majority of new students will be from the Rochester area.

A new feature of the curriculum this year is a class in Army Office Administration which may be taken in addition to regular courses. The course, developed during World War 2 has been reinstated because of the Army's current demand for men. Many RBI students who took the course received rapid advancement as "paper work" specialists.
