Muckle Family Reunion Reveals Record of 186 Years Served in Religion by 4 Priest-Sons, Nun-Daughter

Assembled on the family homestead farm, these eight members of the Muckle family posed at the annual reunion. They are (from left), Rev. William D. Muckle, pastor, Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Toronto; Rev. Charles E. Muckle, pastor, St. Agnes Church, Avon; Andrew G. Muckle, farmer, Stanley; Sister Mary Charles Muckle, R.S.M., principal, St. Thomas School, Irondequoit; Mrs. John H. (Mary Muckle) McWilliams, Stanley; Rev. John F. Muckle, pastor, St. Thomas Church; Mrs. George D. (Jane Muckle) McWilliams, Stanley; Rev. Joseph F. Muckle, C.S.B., professor, St. Michael's College, Toronto.

Four brothers at Solemn Mass celebrated for their parents in the home-town church, St. Theresa's in Stanley. They are: Rev. Charles E. Muckle, celebrant; Rev. John F., deacon, Rev. William D., subdeacon and the Rev. Joseph, master of ceremonies.

Stanley—When the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Muckle gathered at the family homestead in Stanley for its annual reunion on Aug. 22, the fact that five of the nine children have given 186 years in the service of religion was brought out This is believed to be a record for length of service in the Rochester area.

Four of the sons are priests and one daughter is in the Sisters of Mercy. They, with another son and two daughters and children, were present at the reunion.

The four brothers who are priests celebrated a Solemn High Anniversary Mass for their parents and deceased members of the family in St. Theresa's Church. Stanley. At the altar were the Rev. John of Rochester: Charles of Avon; Joseph and William, both of Toronto, Canada.

Present also were Sister Mary Charles Muckle of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Muckle and daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Margaret Joan; and the twin sister of Andrew, Mrs. John E. McWilliams, all of Stanley. Present from Stanley were: Mr. and Mrs. George D. McWilliams (formerly Jane Muckle) and their children, Steven, Patricia, twins Mary and Margaret, Eileen, and Betty, with her husband, John Dean.

AT THE REUNION the family historian told how John H. Muckle, first of the line in America, migrated here from County Down, Ireland, about 1847, and married Bridget McDermot from County Gavin, Ireland, at Oriskany, N. Y. After a few years employment on railroad construction, he purchased a farm in the township of Middlesex, Yates County, where all but the two eldest of his ten children were born. The fifth child was Thomas.

Thomas Muckle, at 21, married Margaret Delaney of Penn Yan, who had come to this country from Queens County, Ireland. Of this union the nine children were born. The first six children were born in the township of Middlesex, the younger three in the township of Potter. Thomas Muckle and his family moved to Stanley in 1903.

THE RECORD of the nine children, particularly those in the service of religion, reads like a "Who's Who in Catholicism."

THE REV. JOHN F. MUCKLE, the eldest, is pastor of St. Thomas Church, Irondequoit. He was educated in Yates County public schools and Dansville High School, from which he was graduated in 1899; Keiska College, St. Hyacinth College, Quebec, St. Michael's College, Toronto, St. Andrew's Seminary and St. Bernard's Seminary.

Ordained in 1908, Father John was appointed procurator of St. Bernard's Seminary. In that position he was also superintendent of the Seminary farms in Greece and the Seminary farm and vineyard now owned by the Society of the Divine Word at Conesus, N. Y.

He served as assistant pastor of Holy Rosary Church, Rochester, and in 1913 was named assistant at St. Francis DeSales Church, Geneva, where he was also Principal of DeSales High School.

Appointed pastor of the newly-organized St. Thomas Church, Irondequoit, in 1922, he purchased the property now owned by the parish on which he has constructed the beautiful combination St. Thomas Church and school, last unit of which was completed this September.

He also purchased a fine brick residence as a parish convent and has renovated and enlarged the original house purchased with the property into a spacious rectory. Of his 42 years in the church's service, he has spent 28 at St. Thomas, where he has succeeded in keeping the parish either entirely free from debt or at a reasonably conservative figure.

REV. CHARLES MUCKLE, pastor of St. Agnes Church, Avon, was educated in Yates County public schools, completed his classics at St. Michael's College, Toronto, in 1904, and after six years at St. Bernard's Seminary was ordained in 1912.

After two years as assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, he was appointed assistant at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Rochester, and superintendent of old Rochester Catholic High School, where he served four years. He was named pastor of St. Patrick's, Mt. Morris, Holy Angels, Nunda, and Holy Name, Groveland, succeeding the Rev. Dr. Andrew E. Breen.

During Father Muckle's ten years at Mt. Morris, the large parish debt was completely liquidated. St. Patrick's School was at capacity with a registration of 563 pupils, largest in its history.

In 1928 he was appointed pastor of St. Agnes, Avon, where he has completely paid off the parish debt and beautified the parish property, the church having been recently redecorated.

Father Charles has given 36 years of service to the church, nearly 32 of which have been spent as pastor in Livingston County. He is the only priest serving in Livingston County of those serving with him 32 years ago. He is the senior active Catholic pastor in point of pastoral service from Rochester through Livingston, Steuben and Chemung Counties in the Pennsylvania State line.

REV. JOSEPH F. MUCKLE, C.S.B., M.A., LL.D., F.R.S.C., is professor of Medieval Latin and Latin Palaeography, St. Michael's College, and professor of Medieval Latin Literature, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, Toronto. He was educated in Yates County public schools and St. Michael's College, Toronto. He entered the Basilian Novitiate in Toronto in 1907, completed his theology at St. Basil's Seminary, Toronto, and was ordained to the priesthood for the Basilian community in 1915. He received his M.A. degree at Catholic University of America. He was professor of Latin at St. Thomas College, Houston and studied at Harvard University.

Father Joseph of the Basilians has done considerable educational and research work in Europe and has been highly honored in Canada. He was named a member of the senate of University of Toronto in 1934, a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada in 1945, and was awarded Doctor of Letters by the University of Western Ontario in 1947, among other honors conferred. He has been a priest more than 36 years.

REV. WILLIAM D. MUCKLE is pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Toronto. He was educated in the Yates and Ontario Counties' public schools, St. Michael's College, Toronto, St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries, and St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto. He was ordained in 1917
