The Mt. Carmel bowlers, however, got off to a bad start by dropping three games to St. Augustine's. St. Andrew's defeated Precious Blood three games. The Outlaws took two games from St. Patrick's keepers and Holy Redeemer made it two over Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral post.

7 Rochesterians Enter LeMoine College Classes

Six young men and one young woman from Rochester are in the Freshmen Class at LeMoine College conducted by the Jesuit Fathers at Syracuse, and another young man has transferred as a senior to the college, according to Gerard H. Tucker, secretary of LeMoine Club of Rochester.

In the Freshmen class are John Arthur Van Orman, 407 Madison St., East Rochester; Dresto P. Cocchi, 277 Saxton St.; Michael P. Quinn, 218 Seymour Road; Gerald E. Eckert, 58 Bancroft Drive; Robert B. Barzowicz, 1 Gothic St.; Gerald Leblanc, 110 Wildwood Drive and Miss Jean Marie Coughlin, 144 Carling Road.

George Eaton, 453 Wellington Ave., is the transfer student. With other members of the class the new freshmen heard the Rev. William J. Schlaerth, S.J., president of the college and other faculty members on opening day. The Rochester group was welcomed to the campus by Rochester Club Secretary Tucker of 67 Clay Ave.

Among social activities was a smoker for newcomers at the Knights of Columbus clubroom on James St. for the men and a supper for the women held at the home of the Syracuse representatives of the student council.

Examinations and tests were taken during Orientation Week.

Footlight Club Slates Farce

The St. Boniface Footlight Club announces that on October 25, 26 and 27 it will stage Noel Coward's hit farce entitled, "Blithe Spirit." The vehicle chosen is a farce that has met with great success, both as a movie and on the London and New York stage. Having to do with a seance, and the effect it has on a husband and former wife, it is humor packed from start to curtain.

The group will again be directed by John Tuttle well known for his many Pittsford Summer Theatre productions.
