Pupils In Daily Rosary At Lunchtime

Leading in the Rosary over the public address system of St. Anthony's School, Elmira, is Charles Ford, eighth grade pupil. Responses are given by the student body in the individual classrooms. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ford. Children are praying for World Peace.

Forgoing part of their lunch time, children of St. Anthony's School, Elmira, voluntarily report 15 minutes earlier each noon to assemble in their classrooms for recitation of the Rosary.

This was reported this week by the Rev. Albert J. Simonetti, pastor of St. Anthony's.

Students in the eighth grade take turns in the daily recitation of the Rosary over the school's modern public address system. Responses are given by the student body from their respective classrooms.

A miniature shrine to our Blessed Mother has been arranged in the principal's office and from this point, the Rosary broadcast is conducted each school day and is offered for World Peace.

The plots and highly commendable practice will continue daily throughout the school year, according to Father Simonetti.

Newest Church, St. Rita's To Be Dedicated Sunday

His Excellency Bishop Kearney will dedicate the newest church building in the Diocese - St. Rita's Church, when the ceremony is held at 10 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 21, and will celebrate Mass in the church at 12:30 p.m.

First Sunday Mass will be celebrated in the church Sept. 21, but will not be held until after work on its building began under direction of the Rev. Francis J. Kiehlmann, first pastor of the newly-organized parish.

Working construction of a rectory, chapel for confirmation room, Father Kiehlmann has made his headquarters in a large

Death of Reverend Mother Anna Doherty, Assistant Councilor of the Society of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart in the Convent of the Sacred Heart in New York City, died at her home in New York City on Sept. 18, 1936, at the age of 82 years.

Reverend Mother Doherty had been a member of the Convent of the Sacred Heart in New York City since 1900. She made her perpetual profession in the same convent in 1917.

At her death, she left a large amount of property for the benefit of the convent in New York City.

Surviving members of her family include two religious of the Convent, Rev. Mother Clara Gattland of Milwaukee and Mother Virginia Gattland of Milwaukee.

Reception for 300 guests was held at the Imperial Club following the ceremony. Later the couple left on a trip to an undisclosed destination.

The bride, a graduate of St. Vincent de Paul's school, Northside High school and St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, has been serving as school nurse at the Savona and Campbell Schools.

Mr. Hooley, also a Northside High school graduate, attended Hobart College and was graduated in June of this year from Ithaca College.

They play Bing's records - particularly his "Father of Our Fathers" - over loudspeakers and when a sufficient number of persons have gathered they switch on to explain the Church's teaching.

The seven priests working the mission report good results - numbers of up to 500 in some small farming towns. They hit one spot of neither: lives of their sister chapel were found slashed one morning. But they put it down to drink.

100 Speakers Heard In Year

Chairman Joseph H. Gervais of the Catholic Speakers in his annual report to Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary of Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus, announced that members of the Bureau had filled more than one hundred speaking engagements since September, 1935.

The total included appearances by members of the Bureau on the Church of the Air program over radio station WRNY.

Mr. Gervais stated that 22 out-of-town speaking appearances had been made by the members since Jan. 1 and that addresses had been given at functions of the Palmyra, Auburn and Le Roy Councils of the Knights of Columbus as well as at Holy Name Society Communion Breakfasts and meetings.

In addition to its speaking program, the members of the Bureau hold a Corporate Communion breakfast and tender an annual dinner to Bishop Kearney, always a strong supporter of their work.
