

Edwin Nolan Reports On Rome Trip To Mothers Club

Auburn—Edwin M. Nolan, well-known Auburn speaker, talked on his recent Holy Year Pilgrimage at the first meeting of the 1950-51 season of the Mothers Club of St. Alphonse Church, held Thursday evening, Sept. 14, at Camp Columbus.

A full course chicken supper was served to 107 members and guests. It was prepared by caterer Mrs. Catherine Christopher, assisted by a committee of mothers of the Eighth Grade and officers of the society.

The dining room of the camp was beautifully decorated and a shrine to the Blessed Mother was erected over the fireplace.

BEHIND THE main speaker, guests included the Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonse Church, his assistants, the Reverend Fathers Robert Monahan, Clarence Gardner, and Robert Doherty, a former assistant, recently transferred to St. Margaret Mary's Church, Rochester, and Mrs. Joseph Barry.

Following the supper, Father Straub greeted the mothers and reported on the new school and its modern equipment. It is expected to be ready soon.

His visit to Rome and his Papal audience was meaningful beyond description. Mr. Nolan told how the Pope felt his throne to be empty among the people and spoke to them in six different languages.

The speaker commented on many other places he visited in the Holy City and remarked that he attended Mass at the tomb of St. Peter. The Mass was said by the Rev. Richard Nangle, a native Auburnian, now stationed in Rochester.

A short business meeting followed the talks and Mrs. Anthony Yantch was appointed chairman for the October meeting. Mrs. Joseph Ryan was appointed chairman of the rummage sale and Mrs. William Merrill head of the blanket project.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Allen Fulton. The committee in charge of Thursday's opening meeting was headed by Mrs. Paul Toole with Mrs. Harold Holtzauer, co-chairman. Assisting them were Mrs. John Krivky, Mrs. Bernard Daly, Mrs. Donald Yorky, Mrs. John Howard, Mrs. Robert Hope, Mrs. Albert Holtzauer, Mrs. Frank Farrel, Mrs. William Rolan, Mrs. Raymond Mahoney, Mrs. Earl Hart, Mrs. George Green, Mrs. William Quigley and Mrs. Allen Fulton.

Jubilee Reunion Held By DeSales High '25 Class

Geneva—Silver jubilee reunion of DeSales High School class of 1925 brought 28 members to Menloith Manor, west side of Canandaigua Lake.

Paul F. Henderson, Miss Frances Merriman and M. Maurice Chacchia of Geneva, and Mrs. William Moran of Canandaigua, were in charge.

As a souvenir each guest received a booklet, "The Wise and Loving Counsel of St. Francis de Sales."

The saint for whom the first Catholic parish of the city and the local Catholic high school were named was a 16th century Bishop of Geneva, Switzerland. He is particularly revered as the patron saint of writers.

Class members extended congratulations to Mary Louise Gilmore of Buffalo upon her graduation from Nardin academy. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gilmore, Mrs. Gilmore is the former Susan O'Dea of this city.

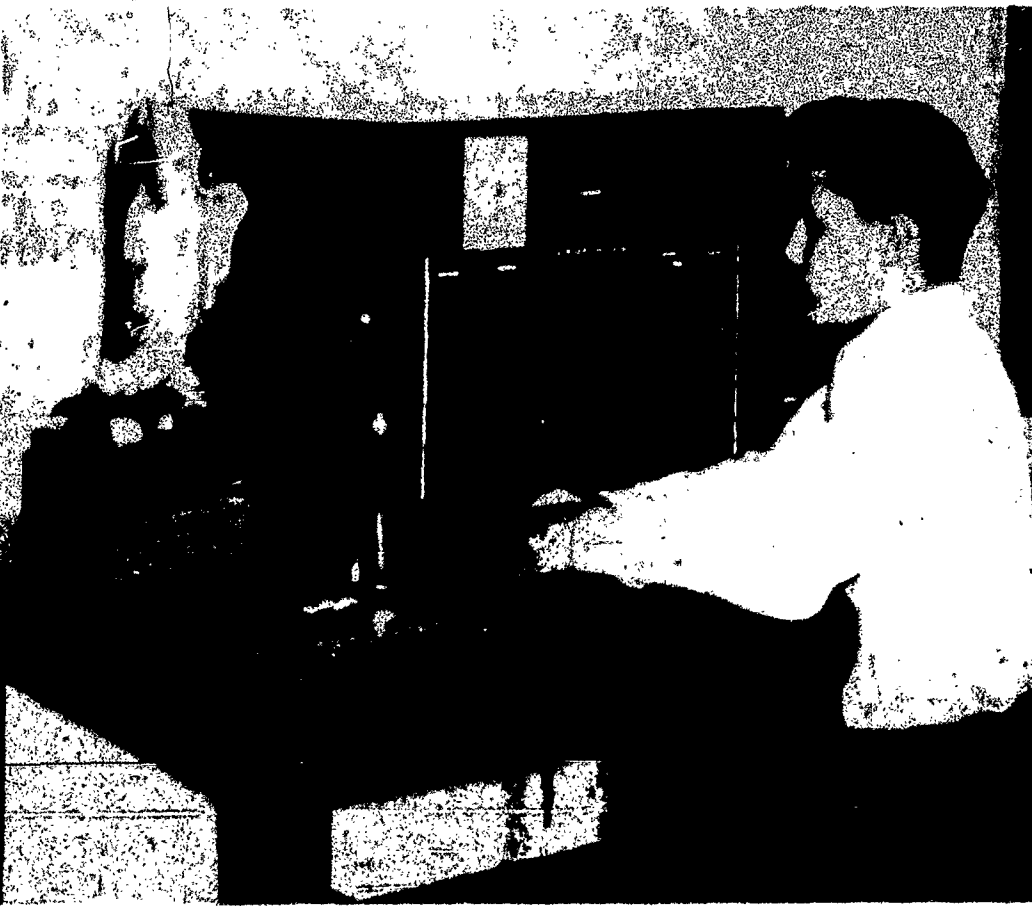

A MESSAGE of greetings from Rev. John Onorato, C.S.B., a former Genevan, now in Florence, Italy, was read to the group. Father Onorato has been studying at the University of Florence, Italy, in preparation for assignment as a member of the faculty of St. John Fisher College, Rochester.

Attending the anniversary celebration were: Rev. Frank Mason, Rev. John Redington, both of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Witzel and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman of Rochester; Mrs. James J. Gilmore of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cannon of Albany; Mrs. James Devine of Kingston; Miss Mary F. DeBott, Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mullen, Elmira; Mrs. Ivan Smith and daughter, Regina, of Waterloo; Mrs. Edward M. Hill and Mrs. William Moran of Canandaigua; Paul Henderson, Miss Frances Merriman, and Mrs. M. Maurice Chacchia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman, Mrs. Arthur Dyett, Mrs. John MacBeth, Mrs. Ralph Calabrese, and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Higgins of Geneva.

Teachers To Hear Ordinary At Final Aquinas Session

The two-day Forty-Sixth Annual Teachers Conference of the Diocese of Rochester in progress Thursday and Friday, this week will be brought to a successful conclusion this afternoon with an address by His Excellency Bishop Kearney in the school auditorium.

Pupils In Daily Rosary At Lunchtime

Leading in the Rosary over the public address system of St. Anthony's School, Elmira, is Charles Ponzal, eighth grade pupil. Responses are given by the student body in the individual classrooms. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ponzal. Children are praying for World Peace.

Foregoing part of their lunch time, children of St. Anthony's School, Elmira voluntarily report 15 minutes earlier each noon to assemble in their classrooms for recitation of the Rosary.

This was reported this week by the Rev. Albert J. Simonetti pastor of St. Anthony's.

Students in the eighth grade take turns in the daily recitation of the Rosary over the school's modern public address system. Responses are given by the student body from their respective classrooms.

A miniature shrine to our Blessed Mother has been at the principal's office and from this point, the Rosary broadcast is conducted each school day and is offered for World Peace.

"The pious and highly commendable practice will continue daily throughout the school year," according to Father Simonetti.
