FAMILY OUTGROWN? PRESENT BATHROOM FACILITIES?

That "waiting-for-my-turn" bathroom problem has been solved in countless homes by installing a shower cabinet in the basement. Early morning grumpiness is done away with 'cause the menfolk just jump out of bed and are down to the shower and back in a jiffy. By the time coffee's ready, they're at the table.

When your's talking Burgart about installing a Shower Cabinet, ask about a new Automatic Water Heater, too. Could be that your present heater is too small. And, when there's not enough hot water for the whole family, whether you have one or a dozen shower cabinets or bathrooms, your family won't be happy.
