

Monsignor Koch Named Head Of Chaplain School

Duties as commandant of the Army Chaplain School, Carlisle Barracks, Pa., were taken over on Oct. 2, by Chaplain (Colonel) Joseph R. Koch, a Rochesterian and a priest of the Archdiocese of Denver who has been in the U. S. Army for 23 years.

A Holy Redeemer parish boy who has had a distinguished career in military life, he has also been honored by the present Holy Father with the rank of Domestic Prelate and title of Right Reverend Monsignor. He is being transferred from the First Army Headquarters, Governors Island, N. Y. where he was stationed since Sept. 1946.

DURING HIS long career in the Army, Chaplain Koch was detailed to serve as chairman of arrangements and events for the International Eucharistic Congress held in Manila in 1936. This was voted the most successful of the 83 Congresses.

MSGR. JOSEPH R. KOCH

He has three sisters and a brother living in Rochester. They are Mrs. Charles Voelkl and Albert Koch, both of 248 Herald St.; Mrs. Florence O'Connell, 368 Walzer Road and Mrs. John Woerner, 1840 Ridge Rd.

Adult Religion Classes Set At Blessed Sacrament

A Public Instruction Class for prospective converts and for Catholics who wish to learn more about their religion opened at Blessed Sacrament church hall Wednesday evening inaugurating a series of informal sessions to continue at 8:15 p.m. every Wednesday night for fifteen weeks.

The weekly instructors will cover the basic doctrines of Catholicism and the religious practices of the faith. Non-Catholics who attend will be given special attention in preparation for Baptism.

IN OPENING the second annual series of classes, the Rt. Rev. Magr. Thomas F. Connors, pastor of Blessed Sacrament, announced that last year's instruction periods had been "very successful" and that the number of converts resulting from the work had proven the merit of continuing the group instruction.

Parishioners were urged to invite their non-Catholic friends and to attend themselves to refresh their religious knowledge.

Arabic Youth Movie Set At St. Nicholas

Reported as the Arabic youth movie of the year, "Intisar Ashabab" or "Triumph of Youth" will be shown at St. Nicholas Church Hall, corner of Lee and Remington Streets on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 14 and 15.

Sponsored by the St. Nicholas Youth Society, the film will be presented at 8 p.m. on Saturday and at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Featured in the movie are two of Egypt's favorite film stars who will offer the best in Arabic music and entertainment. English subtitles will be provided for any of the public who will attend.
