

Parish Library Is Mapped By Waverly Fatima Club

Waverly—The Sodality of Our Lady of Fatima has accomplished a great deal in the year and a half that they have been organized.

Recently, the Knights of Columbus with the assistance of the Fatima Club, as it is locally known, held a spaghetti supper in the church hall. Nearly 300 people attended the dinner which was prepared by the men of the organization and served by the Sodality.

The fourth Sunday of every month is Communion Sunday for the Sodality, and this month breakfast will be served in the church hall immediately after the 8 o'clock Mass. The Eucharistic committee is in charge of the breakfast. All young women of the parish are invited to receive Communion with the Sodality and to be guests at the breakfast.

AT PRESENT, the club is endeavoring to start a parish library. They have sold Christmas cards to raise funds to purchase more books. The Catholic Truth Committee is in charge of the project which is a free library consisting of all popular good books.

On Sunday and Monday, a two-day census was taken of all parishioners of St. James Church.

On the first Sunday in October, the high school Sodality of Our Lady of Perpetual Help recited the Rosary in an outdoor ceremony. For this occasion a special shrine was erected on the porch of the rectory. The Rev. James Marvin, assistant pastor, led the Rosary and the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor, officiated at Benediction. The service which 350 parishioners attended was a project of Our Lady's committee.

700 Years Of Scapular Observed

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By ANN MOFFATT
When His Excellency Bishop Kearney came on Oct. 9, he gave us an extra day between Columbus Day and Saturday to "mediate" on what he said. And whenever there is a holiday, the Athletic Club always plans a football game. Consequently, bright and early Thursday morning half the school appeared to watch the Sophomores suffer their first loss, when the Seniors beat them 78-0.

The upperclassmen were in luck that day for the Juniors beat the Freshmen 54-0. On Friday there was only one game when the Sophomores beat the Freshmen 48-0.

THE SENIORS did not play on Friday because of lack of players. Two team members, Mac Curran and Dick Macdonnell went trotting off to Syracuse. Sister Mary Stephen and yearbook advisor, Sister Mary Lourdes, Mac Curran, editor in chief, and Dick Macdonnell and Ann Moffatt, associate editors, all appeared at 7 o'clock Friday morning to set out for the ESSPA convention. They attended conferences on copy theme, layout, photography, and finance of a yearbook. It was encouraging to note that finance seems to be everyone's biggest problem.

THE JUNIOR GIRLS must be party minded. Even after Dorothy Woldzik's successful "welter roast" they were not satisfied for it was followed by a skating party at the YWCA given by Pat Lorgan and Mary Ann Stratton.

Catholic High students extend their heartiest congratulations to our beloved teachers, Sister Edwards, Sister Mary Stephen, Sister Mary Lourdes, Sister Theresa Clare, whose order The Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph is celebrating their three hundredth anniversary. Congratulations Sisters!

Sunday ECHS students turned out for the Freedom Crusade. The response was tremendous since 110 out of 150 answered the appeal for workers. We're all very proud of ourselves.

Knights of Equity Name 3 from Here

Mrs. Frances Freeman, 242 Denison Parkway, died at Corning Hospital, Saturday, Oct. 14, 1950. She was born in Corning, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Looker and had lived her entire life here. Her marriage to Curry Freeman took place in July, 1922. She was a member of St. Patrick's Church, the Stella Maria Society and Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America.

Survivors include her husband, three sisters, Mrs. Helen Ball of Utica; Mrs. Claude Moore and Mrs. Rose Shater of Corning; one brother, Robert J. Looker of Rochester; four nephews and one niece.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the home at 8:30 a.m. and at 9 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Miss K. M. Bosney, New York (N.C.) Miss Katherine M. Rosney, who served the Catholic Daughters of America as national secretary for 27 years, died Sept. 29 in St. Vincent's Hospital here.

Rochester delegation to the Knights of Equity national convention held in Detroit, Oct. 12-13, returned with three national officers.

The Rev. Ray B. Morphy, pastor of St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester, was named supreme chaplain and Christopher A. DeJanly, supreme trustee. Robert P. Klerman was appointed Supreme Deputy.

In resolutions the Knights protested the partition of Ireland and took a militant stand against any form of Communism, either here or abroad.

Besides the three officers, others in the delegation were Sir Knight Florence O'Connell, past Supreme Sir Knight Michael T. Ryan, Arthur Hart, Thomas Davis and Robert McCarthy.

Also attending were Mrs. O'Connell, Mrs. Delanty, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Ryan and Miss Irene Ennis. James Hayden of Pittsburgh was elected supreme Sir Knight to succeed Thomas L. Ryan of Buffalo. The next convention will be held in Buffalo.
