WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALY'S

By MARY TINLEY DALY... "It's a little devil," our neighbor said as we walked to the grocery.

APTEK the grocery store our next stop, as usual, was at the 5-and-10, gaily decorated for Halloween.

"WELL," I hedged, "sometimes I guess they are. She'd get the whole truth about devils and their native habitat later on in school, and there was no use letting her get the idea that the place was purely stag.

AT THIS point the question is still moot. Ginny tries on Mary Grace's costume and in a Dresden shepherdess; then she dons the devil outfit, remembers the "cute little" expression and hesitates.

Among Women Add Life To Years

By MARY LENNON SNYDER... President, Diocese Council of Catholic Women... "To add life to years, not just years to life" is a slogan on the masthead of a journal dedicated to the problems of the aging.

What shall you do? Just visit, that's all. It may be—and generally is—that all you do is listen. Perhaps it has been a long time since your aged friend has had a friend who would lend her a sympathetic ear.

On the other hand it might be rather significant just now. Several of the younger women who were at first diffident, if not actually
