Father Davis Named Head Of Sacred Hearts Seminary

The Rev. Vincent W. Davis, S.S., son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Davis, 55 Winans St., Rochester is the new Superior and Rector of Sacred Hearts Seminary, Washington, D.C.

REV. VINCENT W. DAVIS

His parents have been informed this week. This is the major seminary of the Congregation of the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts in the United States.

Appointment of Father Davis was announced from the Motherhouse of the Congregation in Braine-le-Comte, Belgium.

GRADUATED FROM St. Salome's School, Point Pleasant in 1933, Father Davis studied 5 years in St. Andrew's Seminary and in 1939 entered the Novitiate of the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts in Fathaven, Mass.

Professed the following year, he continued his studies for the priesthood at the Major Seminary in Washington. He was ordained on May 18, 1944 at the end of the third year of theology.

The following year after completing his seminary studies, he entered the Catholic University of America for graduate studies.

He received the Baccalaureate of Canon Law in June 1947, and the Licentiate in Canon Law in June 1947. Since then Father Davis has been a professor at the Seminary teaching in the departments of Canon Law and Moral Theology.

Since his ordination, Father Davis has also worked extensively in giving retreats to religious communities and in practical work. He spent six months in 1947 in Hawaii preaching retreats and aiding in parochial work.

He is the nephew of the Rev. L. Emmett Davis of Our Lady of Lourdes parish, Elmira, St. Augustine's School and Sister Mary Leone, Holy Rosary School.

Father Tormey Heard By Mt. Morris Group

Mt. Morris—One hundred and twenty persons of St. Patrick's parish enjoyed the fast fry supper served at the St. Patrick's School hall last Friday evening under the sponsorship of the Rosary Society. Mrs. Nicholas Tennant was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangement that did a commendable job in planning the affair.

Following the dinner the Rev. Thomas F. Brennan, pastor introduced the Rev. Richard Tormey, associate editor of the Catholic Courier Journal and noted radio priest. Father Tormey spoke of his recent trip to Europe and of his travels through five countries. He gave an interesting and descriptive talk on his visit to the Vatican and his audience with the Holy Father.

An orchestra furnished music during the dinner and for dancing that concluded the evening's activities.

Rochester Priest To Head Africa Center

Our Lady of Fatima Information Center has been opened by Bishop Adolph A. Noser, S.V.D. in Accra, Gold Coast, British East Africa with the Rev. Charles G. Erb, S.V.D., in charge. Father Erb will be assisted by Joseph K. Des Bordes, secretary general of Catholic Action, Both Father Erb, a native of Rochester and Mr. Des Bordes, prominent African Catholic layman were here a year ago to study lay activities in this diocese.

Rochester Girl Dons Habit of Benedictines

A Rochester girl will receive the Benedictine Sisters' habit on Saturday, Oct. 28, at the Regina Laudis Monastery of the Strict Observance, Bethlehem, Conn.

She is Marie A. Leinberger, formerly active in Holy Redeemer parish and a 1944 graduate of Nazareth College. She recently received her master of arts degree from Fordham University.

Miss Leinberger taught English and Latin at Ontario High School, Ontario, N. Y., and subsequently served as secretary to Sister Mary Frederick, C. B. C., president of Dunbarton College, Washington, D. C., prior to her entrance into the Benedictine Monastery last June.

SHE HAS a sister, Sister Louise, S.S.J., a teacher in St. Paul's School, Oswego, and a brother, Norbert R. Leinberger, 220 Pershing Dr., Rochester.

REGINA LAUDIS Monastery, established a few years ago, was the institution which served as the theme for the popular popularized story by Clare Booth Luce, "Come to the Stable."

Recently the monastery suffered the loss of its barn, grain and farm equipment from effects of a $35,000 fire. It caused particular hardship because it destroyed the source of the convent's milk, butter and cheese, the mainstay of the monastery diet.
