Elmira Catholic Highlights

By ANN MOFFATT Swing your partner, allemande left! That was what was heard through the halls at Elmira Catholic High School this past week.

You see, it all started with our "Masquerade Ball", we were square dancing and soon discovered that there were "pros" among us, so the yearbook managers, Dick Halpin and Dick Dunn decided to turn this into an opportunity to make money for the yearbook.

Practically every noon now square dances are held in the assembly hall with an admission of five cents. In this way we are learning to square dance as well as helping to finance the yearbook. Besides that it's a lot of fun!

SENIORS presented a pep assembly to initiate the Patron Drive on Tuesday. Slated to run from Nov. 1 to Dec. 8, the goal for the underclassmen is 60 patrons from each homeroom and 75 for the Seniors.

So if someone that looks a little hopeful but scared knocks on your door and asks you to be a patron, ally his fears please, and say yes! To get the students enthusiastic about this all-important project the Seniors sang some songs with appropriate words set to popular music by the Senior girls.

The editors and business managers gave speeches a propos to the subject, and the assembly closed with the singing of the Alma Mater song.

THE HING salesman came last week to help us select our class rings. After much deliberation, we chose the style that pleased us and placed our orders. We expect the rings to be here by mid-January or the first of February.

We are unhappy to report that two people were missing from the senior homeroom last week. Sister Teresa Clare our moderator stayed home as she put it, indisposed. However, we are happy to welcome her back on Oct. 30. Our second casualty was Paul Dalley, our class president who was taken to St. Joseph's on Oct. 23, with an attack of appendicitis. It's evidently his unlucky day for he entered the hospital last year on the very same day for a broken collar bone. However, he left the hospital Nov. 1, and we hope he'll soon be back among us.

FRESHMEN NEWS: The Freshmen English Club has elected a secretary, Edward Godwin. Other officers were Mary Benedict, president, and Nancy Goff, temporary chairman. Besides that the Frosh are still busy having parties. Teresa Hourigan entertained a group of them at her home on Oct. 30 to ring the witch-and-black cat season.

Wednesday was a happy day for Catholic High. In the first place, it was a holiday, occasioned by the Feast of All Saints. Secondly, it was the day of the Pope's proclamation of the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary for which we have been preparing by a novena in her honor since Oct. 23.

Catholic Economists Schedule Convention Chicago (NC) — His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, is expected to address the ninth annual meeting of the Catholic Economic Association, which will be held here December 27. It has been announced. The group will meet in conjunction with the American Economic Association convention.

Other speakers will include M. S. Szymczek, member of the board of the Federal Reserve System, the Rev. Robert J. McEwen, S.J. of Boston College, Dr. Josef Solterer, association president, the Rev. Bernard W. Dempsey, S.J. of St. Louis University, and Raymond J. Kent of the University of Notre Dame.

Catholics In Japan Lead Chest Fund

Tokyo (NC) — Catholic priests, Sisters, students, Girl Scouts and laymen took leading roles in the annual community chest drive here. The students of the Salesian Fathers' Industrial School went over their quota of $35,000 during the first week.

Communists, who were aroused by the success of the Catholic student groups, started a counter-offensive by following them about and distributing leaflets in which the students were accused of pocketing the money for themselves. The Salesian Superior notified the Chief of Police, who immediately provided police protection for the students.

Secondly, it was the day of the Pope's proclamation of the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary for which we have been preparing by a novena in her honor since Oct. 23.
